

What is Home Without the Republican

The Daily Republican.

Our Aim, All the News—All the Time

State Librarian

17.

Rushville, Indiana, Monday Evening, January 30, 1911.

Single Copies, 2 Cents.

WAS VICTIM OF VERY OLD GAMELew Story Fell For Strangers Talk and Was "Touched" For $14
While Asleep.

GAVE NAME AS JACK JOHNSON

Also Out a Pair of Shoes and Revolver—Let Man Stay All Night.

It was a very pathetic story Lew Story told the police yesterday. Story reported that he had been "touched" for $14 in cash, a new pair of shoes and a good revolver by a man giving his name as Jack Johnson.

Story was the "fall guy" and fell for the man's game which was an old one. He met Johnson Saturday night and was given a hard luck story about having no place to stay. Johnson told Story he knew some of his friends and they had told him to look Story up as he could probably take care of him over night.

Now Story was glad to hear from his old friends and it would be all right for the stranger to spend the night with him. Lew was very accommodating and took Mr. Jack Johnson home with him. Story slept late the next morning and when he awoke he found Johnson had disappeared as had his valuables. Johnson had taken every precaution on Story awakening, for he had taken a piece of gas pipe to bed with him for an emergency.

Story told his tale to the police and a search was made for the man, but the last they heard of him he was going west on an I. & C. car. The Indianapolis police were notified to be on the watch for Johnson, but nothing more has been heard of him.

Just why the stranger used the name of the celebrated pugilist is not quite well understood by the police nor Story either. Since the thief's namesake is the undefeated champion of the world in the heavyweight class, said successful robber may have felt that the title would be his lucky star. While the original may be the heavy-weight champion, the Jack Johnson, who played the game so successfully here might be declared the light-weight champion of the "light-fingered gents."

RECORD IN PRODUCTION

Brother of Local Men Given Diploma
For Corn Raising.

J. B. Downey of Easton, Ill., brother of T. J. Downey of Rush county, and L. B. Downey of 702 North Sexton street, has received a handsome diploma from the State board of agriculture, for having raised over 100 bushels of corn to the acre. Only twenty of these certificates were issued to farmers in different parts of the State and Mr. Downey is justly proud of this official recognition of his ability as a producer of Illinois' great staple crop.

TRAVELING MAN DIES.

John Ross Nugent, one of the widely known traveling men of Indiana, who had many friends in this city, died at his home in Indianapolis yesterday morning of heart trouble. The body was taken to Bedford today and the funeral was held there this afternoon.

—Miss Mary Horton spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horton, east of Rushville.

HAVENS SCHOOL OPENED

Children Were Examined by Board of Health This Morning.

The city health board examined all the children at the Havens school this morning for any symptoms of diphtheria. The school was opened this morning after it had been thoroughly fumigated and every precaution used for the prevention of a spread of the disease.

ESCAPES WITH BALL
AND CHAIN TO FEETTheodore Johnson, County Asylum
Inmate, is Caught in Morristown and Taken to Shelbyville.

THIS IS HIS SECOND OFFENSE

Theodore Johnson, the "ball and chain" man of the county poor asylum, who escaped from the farm Saturday, was caught in Morristown yesterday and taken to Shelbyville, where he was lodged in jail. Deputy Sheriff Arthur Kinnear went there this afternoon and expected to return with the demented man this evening.

Johnson is allowed freedom about the farm, but a ball and chain is attached to his feet at all times, so that he can not escape. But this is the second time that he has proved that such a little thing as a ball and chain is no hindrance to him. A few months ago he escaped from the farm, walking to this city over the I. & C. traction line, where he created a ripple of excitement, when he appeared on the streets. Johnson is not considered dangerous, but has the wanderlust in his system.

OFFICIALS WILL MOVE TOMORROWIndianapolis Offices of I. & C. Will be Vacated and Combined in Building Here.

PRESIDENT TO LOCATE HERE

Tomorrow the suite of office rooms in the Traction Terminal building in Indianapolis will be vacated by the officers of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction Company, who will move to this city and locate in the office building here at the corner of Morgan and Third streets. The offices to be moved will include those of the president, general manager, traffic and purchasing departments. A force of men has been cleaning up the general offices here and preparing for the coming of the new officials. The president's office will be located in the room just back of the ticket office, where the chief engineer's office was formerly located.

In addition to more adequate office room, the removal will mean the centralization of all of the offices, with the exception of the trainmaster's office. That will be located in the Indianapolis freight house of the company. None of the officials of the company, residing in Indianapolis, will move to this city at present. The question of combining the offices here has been under consideration for some time.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

A marriage license has been issued to Miss Hazel Marie Ehler and William M. Jackson.

TWO APPEARED
BEFORE MAYOR"Hot Stuff" Bell, and "Muldoon"
Keating Arrested For Being Drunk.

FINED ONE DOLLAR AND COSTS

John Found His Whiskey, While Tom Had His Shipped Into The City.

John Bell, better known as "Hot Stuff," was arrested yesterday afternoon by Policeman John Wolters, charged with being drunk. Bell was found in the east part of the city in a very intoxicated condition. He was arraigned before Mayor B. A. Black this morning and pleaded guilty. This being "Hot Stuff's" first appearance before his Honor, he was given the customary fine of one dollar and costs.

When asked where he obtained the whiskey, Bell said he found it in a trash box back of the Hogsett store. As near as he could remember there was just a pint in the bottle. Bell was seen in the company of one or two more men but he could not remember who they were. He was in a bad condition and did not even know where Policeman Wolters found him.

Mayor Black told Bell he was surprised to see him up there as he was just thinking the other day that "Hot Stuff" must have reformed. Bell, who has been quite a character around the city, has been leading the "straight and narrow" and this was his first arrest in two or three years. His fine was stayed.

Tom Keating was arrested this morning on a similar charge. "Muldoon" was seen on the streets in an intoxicated condition yesterday and ordered home by the police. He went home, but came back. While Policeman Wolters was looking for him he managed to evade the officer and his arrest came this morning. He was brought before Mayor Black at two-thirty o'clock this afternoon.

Keating pleaded guilty and was fined one dollar and costs. He told the mayor that the whiskey had been shipped in from Indianapolis Saturday night. This was "Muldoon's" first offense. His fine was stayed.

EXPIRED AT HOME
OF HER DAUGHTERMrs. Urania Jones, 72 Years Old, Mother of Roy Jones, Died in Indianapolis.

BURIAL TOOK PLACE TODAY

Mrs. Urania Jones, wife of W. W. Jones of this city, and mother of Roy H. Jones, died Saturday about noon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Williams, 2624 Central avenue, Indianapolis. Mrs. Jones was 72 years old. She had suffered for some time from bronchitis which caused her death.

Mrs. Jones had been visiting her daughter and while there suddenly took ill. It was deemed best by the physicians not to remove her to this city. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, Roy Jones of this city, and one daughter, Mrs. J. J. Williams of Indianapolis.

The funeral services were held this afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by the Rev. J. B. Meacham of this city. Burial took place at Crown Point cemetery.

FIND "JOKER" IN
NEW LIQUOR LAWLocal Attorneys Maintain Election in Rushville Township, Outside of City, is Next to Impossible.

COMMISSIONERS HAVE POWER

Law Says Vote For Secretary of State at Last General Election
Shall be Basis.

Rushville attorneys have read the Proctor bill which was signed by Governor Marshall this afternoon and became a law and agree that there are many "jokers" to be found in it. They maintain that it is next to impossible to hold elections in that part of Rushville township which is outside of the territorial limits of Rushville or in other townships outside of cities all over the State, as the Proctor law provides that that, besides the incorporated city and township, shall be the unit by which the vote will be made.

Whether by accident or pure design to defeat the "dry" interest, it is asserted that a very awkward blunder has been made in preparing the details of the law. Following closely in this instance the language of the county option law, which is now ineffective since the Proctor bill has been passed, the new law says:

"When the petition is signed by a number of the qualified electors of the territory in which such election is petitioned for equal to not less than 20 per cent of the aggregate votes cast in the territory in which such election is sought to be held for secretary of State at the last general election."

Local attorneys declare that no person or persons can determine the twenty per cent of the number of votes which were cast for the secretary of State in the last general election in that part of Rushville township, which is not in the city limits. They believe that it will be a very easy task to get the signatures of twenty per cent of the voters who cast their ballots in the township and the city, to call a city election, but they can not understand how it will be possible to get the same number of signatures in the territory in the township outside of the city. They have no way of learning the vote cast in that part of the township at the last general election, hence it will be impossible to know when they have twenty per cent of the voters on the petition, which the law provides should be presented to the commissioners.

A Boonville man, who is anxious to start a saloon, has found what he declares to be a "joker" in the new law. It is his opinion that the emergency clause makes all "dry" counties "wet" at once, regardless of the clause providing that all counties shall remain as they have been voted until the expiration of the two-year period from the date of the election. He says the two clauses conflict and he has employed an attorney to look into the matter for him. The attorney hopes to make the case strong enough to establish a test suit in the Warlick circuit court. The would-be saloon keeper has already advertised for a license and is anxious to start business at once.

The Grant county "wets" have found a weak spot in the new law, so they assert, and they have planned to attack it in case attempts are made to vote any of the townships in the county "dry."

The new law, they state, provides for elections by cities and by por-

Continued on page 2.

PETIT AND GRAND JURORS

Men Named Who Will Serve During Coming Term.

The petit and grand jurors for the February term of court have been drawn. They are as follows: Petit, Raymon Brown, Birney Piper, Fred Knotts, John E. Hilligoss, W. A. Billings, Frank McBride, Jonathan F. Fore, Edwin W. Tarplee, Raymond Selby, John Popoon, Isaac Barnard, and Lilborn M. White. Grand jury, Jesse Havens, Jacob Brown, A. H. Hopper, P. H. Kirkpatrick, Robert M. Reddenbaugh and William C. Newhouse.

ALLEGED BURGLARY
ON THIRD CHARGELast of Three Affidavits Has Been Filed Against Corda Martin,
For Bank Robbery.

TO TRY HIM IN INDIANAPOLIS

An affidavit charging Corda Martin with burglary has been filed in the Indianapolis Criminal court, for his alleged connection with the robbery of the New Palestine Bank several weeks ago. His bond was fixed at $5,000. This makes the total amount of the bonds against him $11,000. He has been unable to furnish bail. When arraigned on the charge Martin pleaded not guilty. The other charges against him are grand larceny and conspiracy to commit felony.

This does not confirm the story that emanated from Greenfield last week that the alleged bank robber would be tried in Greenfield. The paper there stated that the Hancock county prosecutor would file an affidavit, charging him with burglary. It has been said before that the Indianapolis authorities would deal with Martin, since the Hancock county officials allowed him to go free twice on serious charges.

FLOWER CITY POET
NEAR DEATH'S DOORBenjamin S. Parker of New Castle, Father of Jet Parker, May Not Recover.

SLIGHTLY IMPROVED TODAY

Benjamin S. Parker of New Castle, generally known over the State as the "Hoosier Poet of the Flower City," father of Jet Parker, who was, until recently, identified with the O. P. C. H., is critically ill. It was feared for a time that he would never recover, but today a dispatch from New Castle states that Mr. Parker is somewhat improved and that the family and friends feel very much encouraged.

He will be 78 years old on February 10. On his birthday anniversary last year he was surrounded by the school children of the city, who made the day a general holiday. Mr. Parker has been a teacher, business man and editor. He was representative from Henry county in the Legislature and served as United States consular at Sherbrook, Canada, from 1882 to 1885.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight. Tuesday fair and warmer.

START CAMPAIGN
FOR SIGNATURES"Drys" Circulate Petitions For Local Option Election in Rushville and Get Signers Easily.

WANT TO GET 366 THIS WEEK

"Wets" so Far Are Inactive And Have Not Publicly Shown Any Opposition to Campaign.

The campaign to prevent the saloons from getting a foothold in Rushville was begun in earnest by the "dry" forces today. Petitions were circulated all day and were signed freely. The committee has not yet been thoroughly organized, as the personnel of the organization has not yet been definitely determined. There are still two vacancies in the committee, one man of each of two churches having not yet been chosen.

The "drys" hope to finish the campaign for signatures this week in whirlwind fashion and get the required number, 366, which is twenty per cent of the vote cast in Rushville township for secretary of State in the last general election. It is impossible to determine the number of votes cast in the city of Rushville in the last election for the same candidate. If the number can be obtained this week and the petition presented to the commissioners at their regular February meeting next Monday, the "drys" believe they can keep saloons out, since it will be impossible to petition for a saloon license before March 6, as the Proctor law provides.

The committee in charge of the campaign consists of two men from each church in the city. The captain of the Salvation Army here has been solicited for aid and has promised his own help as well as that of the members of the corps.

So far only one man has been named from the First Presbyterian and the Ninth Street Baptist churches, as representatives on the committee. The members of the committee are: St. Paul M. E., F. E. Wolcott and R. P. Havens; Main Street Christian, Dr. C. H. Parsons and B. F. Miller; First Baptist, James W. Gartin and James Alsop; United Presbyterian, T. M. Green and Will Cherry; First Presbyterian, Frank Reynolds; Ninth Street Baptist, Joe Christman.

So far the "wets" have made little or no opposition to the fight that the "dry" forces propose to wage. It is not known whether any plans have been made to attempt to assist in the campaign for votes in case enough signatures are obtained to warrant the calling of an election.

It is commonly rumored that several old saloon keepers will open saloons just as soon as the two-year period expires, which is February 28. Rumors have been current of leases having been procured on several rooms of good location about the city. It has been declared that the Tyner room, now occupied by the Kennard jewelry store, had been rented to a brewery for several months and that they will pay one hundred dollars a month as soon as the saloon is installed. Ed Tyner gives the lie to that statement and says that there is no truth in it. He says that the room is not rented or leased to any person, except John Kennard.

REBEKAH MEETING.

There will be a called meeting of the Rebekahs Tuesday evening, January 31, for practice. All Rebekahs who are members of the team are urged to be present. Laura Alexander, secretary.

America Must Have New Tariff to Fit the World

America has reached a time in her history when she can no longer think and act as an independent. Her business or trade relations bind her with cords strong as iron to every part of the globe. Her social relations bind her with cords as far reaching as thought to every nation on the globe. Business and society roll our great world into one, and pull it about to its everlasting disadvantage, or pull it together for its eternal benefit.

We can no longer think in states; we must think in nations. America points with pride to her "Declaration of Independence." It is time now to lay it reverently away among the memories of a valiant, courageous, happy, and well-spent youth, and take up, with the duties of maturer years, the position of dependence that she thought she had left forever behind.

The tariff question is solving itself. Everyone recognizes the need of revision downward, in a manner not to disturb business conditions more than necessary. A balanced trade in the world is as necessary and natural as balanced money in the world.

The present idea of Free Trade is a state where no tariff exist; but when the labor conditions of Europe are such, on account of the cheapness of labor in Europe, as to make it impossible for America to compete in certain lines of manufacture where her own natural supplies make it otherwise expedient and practicable for her to do so, free trade is impossible; and the only way to equalize conditions, and make trade balance, is to impose a tariff to offset the inequality.

To understand the bearing of the tariff on commercial conditions one must look beneath the surface of things. What is the tariff?

To put it in simple language, the tariff is an equalizing machine, adjustable in its parts, adaptable to any country or climate, intended to regulate the natural advantages or disadvantages under which the different countries labor, owing to the diverse habits, customs, abilities, and movements of its peoples. Strong, uncontrollable influences keep up a constant fluctuation in industrial and commercial relations between the different nations. There is no way to offset this but by regulation on an industrial and commercial basis.

Each nation must use its discretion as to how much or how little regulation is necessary; but is handicapped at present by having no universal clearing-house. The regulating machine in the hands of each nation is the best guarantee that each will respect and consult the wishes of the others before making any move to upset a proper equilibrium.

When good business conditions in any country invite a great increase in its population with no corresponding increase in its farm products each month, prices of food become dear under the increased demand.

The population of the world is free to move about, and causes great changes in conditions, overstocking of markets with labor, and depleting of the markets of supplies; the bringing together of "many men of many minds," all thinking themselves ripe for citizenship, such as they have been accustomed to, but sadly lacking, in numerous instances, in the essential knowledge and training to make intelligent voters in their new environment. Thus the tariff in any country may itself help to invite irregularities unless it is supported by the tariffs of other nations, where it may act as a deterrent to keep people at home.

In short, the world is one great whole, and its parts are interdependent. Separate regulation devices applied only to parts, create, in other parts, more disturbance than they have power to control. The low places of the business world need to be filled, and the hills brought down to the level.

But any artificial conditions brought about by the tariff can not be swept away by violence without driving hundreds of business men to the wall, and playing havoc in the country. The tariff has helped to build up the country; but it is like any other good thing, if allowed to go to excess, it becomes an evil.

America is then not to blame for all the evils brought about by the tariff. When an important country like England is without a tariff, it makes commercial and industrial conditions uneven; but it is not easily brought to the minds of the people of England, who are misled by their high import and export records reliable enough when applied to America, but very misleading when applied to a carrying country like England, where goods is brought in to be immediately or later exported. These records do not show the work done in a country unless separate records are kept showing the goods imported for export. These records are often difficult to get, and entail a tremendous expense of time and money. That the records are not strictly and accurately kept is a matter of common knowledge, as one can readily verify by conversation with those who handle the carrying trade.

Where one must look for an index of the labor conditions of England is in the condition and minds of the workers.

We may talk about the Declaration of Independence, but find ourselves at the mercy of unequal commercial and industrial conditions, that like a building that has been undermined, are swaying, and may fall, if not properly supported.

The pressure on the part of Great Britain has not been apparent until recently. Now America is beginning to feel it.

Month after month, and year after year Great Britain has been pressing down on her laboring population. "Free Trade" and the feudal system kept the laborer turning to America to find occupation and a home of his own. "Free trade" helped to foster the feudal system, there being no sufficient demand from a flourishing laboring population to lead the large land owner to think it worth while to part with his land.

Both the "Free Trade" of England, and the high tariff of America have favored unequal conditions, and have driven and lured the laborer to America. He has come in great numbers. Had he come in good condition, we might now be able to congratulate ourselves. But he comes today, and has been coming for some time, as a rank socialist, if not a secret anarchist. He reads visionary books setting forth a glorious time to come when all will be happy and equal; but he has no settled, practical ideas to back it up. He is "the blind leading the blind." He comes, in many instances, from countries where freedom is unknown; his mind has been dwarfed by oppression and ignorance. He talks widely about the American flag some day waving above the British flag; and is in danger of putting enmity between the two countries, since, on account of his previous condition, he brings no patriotism with him, no love for the land of his birth or sojourn, and expects to make a good citizen in the land of his adoption. This is not true of all British emigrants today. It is sadly true of a large proportion of the British emigrants of the poorer class.

When one has to defend Great Britain from the vituperation of her own citizens, one can feel a sense of satisfaction in the thought that there are points in business truth, along commercial lines, in which England can teach America today, and can feel sure that the socialist with some English training, whether he is of British origin or not, turns many a warm and kindly thought to old England before he is entirely initiated into America.

As long as some of our citizens are in the penitentiary; and as long as we read signs like this in our good hotels: "Watch whatever you bring into the dining-room; it is not at our but your risk," we have not yet reached the time when socialism is practicable, except, perhaps, in a "model city," in the midst of a great country, where its neighbors are busy apprehending and punishing its delinquent citizens, and where it has a large area from which to draw only people of high character.

When we see a "model city" overflowing with good citizens, until they begin to reach all the towns around, and are gradually spreading over the State, we may at last conclude that State, we may at last conclude that we have found the web that can catch good citizens and hold them true to a straight path.

The outcasts from all the nations of Europe look to England for a place of refuge. It is the proper gateway to America. Europe is becoming more peaceful, while Great Britain and America struggle with the "Giant of Despair" in the grounds of "Doubting Castle." It is not "By-path meadow," that looks pleasant and alluring, but the highway of self-control and right living that we need to follow.

Tariff Reform in Great Britain may enable her to detain the European emigrants until they are sufficiently familiar with the requirements of a democratic government to understand their own position, and to exercise the functions of citizenship to the credit of both England and America.

We have a quarantine at Ellis Island to keep out physical disease, where our officials work hard to keep the country healthy in body. Are we giving as much attention to seeing that the emigrants are healthy in mind, before they are allowed to take a hand in our government?

We read our "Declaration of Independence," and wonder "where we are at."

"Hands across the sea" are more necessary today than ever between Great Britain and America. It is not a race to see whose flag can wave the highest, but to see whose citizens can act most nobly, whose statesmanship can most smooth the path of civilization, and whose modesty can most contribute to the good fellowship of the world.

America is fortunate at the present juncture in having able men, who are giving time and talent to the solution of her problems. The thinker who may be nearer the surface in his thought may clash with the deep thinker not wholly understanding the problem but the foundations of the world's tariff are being laid deeply, as fast as the thought of our best minds grasp the problem.

The evils of a high tariff crept upon us unaware, shaking the political parties to their foundations in the past three years. They have wrestled with graft and corruption in the work or regeneration.

To put down the evil, revise the tariff, and preserve the good has required statesmanship of a high order.

As the country now faces the future, chastened and united, we have greater faith in American politics, greater hope for the future, and greater intention to live individually for universal ends.

(Copyright, 1910, by Jessie A. Price.)

The greatest dangers from influenza is of its resulting in pneumonia. This can be obviated by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as it not only cures influenza, but counteracts any tendency of the disease towards pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.

A Fool Trick.

When a man puts new rafters in the roof of his house thinking thereby to strengthen the foundation, he does a fool trick. It is just as foolish to take other remedies when a person needs Sexine Pills. When you need a tonic-builder, there is no use taking anything else; for Sexine Pills do it in half the time, and do it twice as well. Price $1 a box, six boxes $5. Absolutely guaranteed. Address or call Hargrove & Mullin, druggists, where they sell all the principal remedies and do not substitute.

The peculiar properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during epidemics of influenza, and when it was taken in time we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.

Foley's Kidney Remedy An Appreciation.

L. McConnell, Catherine St., Elmira, N. Y., writes: "I wish to express my appreciation of the great good I derived from Foley's Kidney Remedy, which I used for a bad case of kidney trouble. Five bottles did the work most effectively and proved to me beyond doubt it is the most reliable kidney medicine I have ever taken." Sold by F. B. Johnson.

INSPECTOR M'CAFFERTY

New York Police Officer
Dead After Long Illness.

Police Inspector James McCafferty, formerly head of the New York detective bureau, is dead after a long illness.

THE PRESIDENT MAPS OUT SEVERAL TRIPS

First One Will Be to Springfield in February.

Washington, Jan. 30.—While President Taft's spring travel schedule will not be so long as that of last year, the president has accepted engagements that will take him over thousands of miles of territory and keep him away from Washington for many days at a time.

The first big trip on the president's travel book will begin the second week in February. The president will go to Springfield, Ill., to attend the Lincoln memorial celebration. On the way he will stop for a few hours at Columbus, after which he will make a quick trip over some of the trolley lines in central Illinois owned by Representative William B. McKinley. Mr. Taft is expected back in the White House by Feb. 12.

A trip which will be a little longer in point of time will begin March 8, when the president will leave Washington for Atlanta, where he will speak before the Southern Commercial congress. From Atlanta the president will go northwestward through Tennessee to Cincinnati, his native city. He will stop at Nashville and Chattanooga, and possibly at other southern cities. The president will remain in Cincinnati three or four days and will then make a short trip to Cleveland. From Cleveland he is expected to return to Washington. He will be gone at least one week on this trip.

While no definite engagements have been made for other trips in the spring, it is quite probable that the president will make short visits to New York and other eastern cities. In June the president will move to Beverly, and from there is likely to make excursions into the east and middle west. He has accepted an invitation to be the guest of honor at the Kansas state fair at Hutchinson late in September.

BLAMES THE OPERATOR

It is Claimed Failure to Deliver Message Led to Wreck.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 30.—The death of two and the probable death of a third person, is the result of a wreck when two freight trains on the Chesapeake & Ohio met in a head-on collision on a curve one mile east of Blountsville.

The dead: Harry Edwards, Peru, engineer; H. E. Sherock, Peru, fireman. Probably fatally injured: J. L. Swisher, Peru, head brakeman.

All of the ill-fated trainmen were members of the same crew on train No. 73, which was west bound. None of the trainmen on the other freight, an extra running east, was injured. Engineer H. Hilmer and Fireman J. Iholtz, both of Peru, jumping from the cab of their engine before the crash came.

All blame for the wreck is laid at the door of Homer Chalfant, night operator at Losantville, who is said to have failed to deliver orders to train No. 73.

Will Resume Operations.
Springfield, Ky., Jan. 30.—T. Scott Mayes was interviewed relative to the condition of the Central bank of Wilkesburg, Ky., which closed its doors. Mr. Mayes reports that nothing wrong was found, the only trouble being a lack of available funds. A levy has been made, and the bank will resume operation next week.

Lost Out by Four Votes.
Sterling, Ill., Jan. 30.—The proposition to establish the commission form of government in Sterling was defeated by a majority of four votes. The saloon interests fought the plan. Only half the vote was polled.

Walked Into River.
Fairmont, W. Va., Jan. 30.—Mrs. Lena Davis, eighty-three years old, deliberately walked into Tygart river and was drowned.

Daily Markets

Indianapolis Grain and Livestock.
Wheat—Wagon, 95c; No. 2 red, 96c. Corn—No. 2, 45½c. Oats—No. 2 mixed, 33½c. Hay—Baled, $15.50@17.50; timothy, $15.00@18.00; mixed, $12.50@15.00. Cattle—$4.00@6.75. Hogs—$6.00@7.90. Sheep—$2.50@3.75. Lambs—$4.00@6.00. Receipts—4,500 hogs; 1,150 cattle; 100 sheep.

At Cincinnati.
Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.01. Corn—No. 2, 48½c. Oats—No. 2, 35c. Cattle—$3.50@6.10. Hogs—$4.50@8.15. Sheep—$2.50@4.15. Lambs—$4.00@6.15.

At Chicago.
Wheat—No. 2 red, 97½c. Corn—No. 2, 46½c. Oats—No. 2, 32½c. Cattle—Steers, $5.00@7.00; stockers and feeders, $4.25@5.70. Hogs—$5.50@7.85. Sheep—$3.25@4.60. Lambs—$4.25@6.15.

At St. Louis.
Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.04. Corn—No. 2, 45c. Oats—No. 2, 33c. Cattle—Steers, $6.25@7.25. Hogs—$4.75@7.95. Sheep—$3.00@4.25. Lambs—$5.50@6.50.

At East Buffalo.
Cattle—$4.25@6.75. Hogs—$6.00@8.30. Sheep—$2.75@4.75. Lambs—$5.00@6.00.

Theo. H. Reed & Son are paying the following prices for grain—today, January 30, 1911:

Wheat, 60lb94c
Wheat, 59lb92c
Wheat, 58lb90c
Wheat, 57lb88c
New Corn38c
New Oats, per bushel35c
Timothy Seed, per bu. $3.50 to $4.50
Clover Seed$6.00 to $7.00

The following are the ruling prices of the Rushville market, corrected to date—January 30, 1911:

POULTRY.
Spring Chickens, per pound10c
Hens on foot, per pound10c
Turkeys, per pound15c
Ducks10c
Geese, per pound9c

PRODUCE
Eggs, per dozen22c
Butter, country, per pound13c

The use of electricity for light and power in the United States has more than doubled in the last eight years.

An electrical teleprinting apparatus enables the Belin police to print notices in two hundred stations in the city and its suburbs simultaneously.

The telegraph companies of this country employ about thirty thousand persons. This does not include the railroad service.

Oysters, 40c. per quart. Madden's Restaurant. 159tf

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. When Chamberlain's Liniment is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This liniment is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. Sold by all dealers.

ABSTRACTS OF TITLE
FIRE and TORNADO INSURANCE
FIDELITY and SURETY BONDS
BURGLARY INSURANCE
GEORGE W. OSBORNE,
240 Main Street Telephone 1236

LOANS, ABSTRACTS OF TITLE AND INSURANCE
WE GIVE YOU THE BEST SERVICE

LOUIS C. LAMBERT & COMPANY
OFFICE: Over Rush County National Bank

THE MADDEN BROTHERS CO.
MACHINISTS
REPAIR WORK IS OUR SPECIALTY

Have your old machinery repaired and made good as new. Steam and Gas Engine Repairing a Specialty. Call and see our St. Mary's Semi-Automatic Gas and Gasoline Engines before you buy. 2½, 4 and 7 Horse Power. Built for hard service on the farm.

We Grind and Sharpen Lawn Mowers, Mower/Sickles, Plow Points, Cutte Knives, etc.
Phone 1632 517 to 519, W. Second St.

EVERY DAY IS A NEW BEGINNING

Then why not begin today by putting all your small bills into one having then only one place to pay, also making your payments smaller than you are now paying. If you need some money in order to do this, let us advance it to you, as we have assisted thousands of others this way. Why not you?

All that is necessary to obtain the amount needed is to own household goods, pianos, horses, wagons, etc. We have our own original fifty week plan which gives you fifty weeks in which to pay back your loan.

60c is a weekly payment on a $25 loan.
$1.20 is a weekly payment on a $50 loan.
$2.40 is a weekly payment on a $100 loan.

If in need of money fill out the blank and mail to us. Our agent will call on you.

Your name
Address Occupation

Amount wanted

RICHMOND LOAN COMPANY,
Room 8, Colonial Building
RICHMOND, INDIANA.
Phone, 1545. Established 15 Years.

COUNTY NEWS

Glenwood.

Dr. Jamieson preached at the U. P. church Sunday. After preaching service the communion service was held.

Very few attended the M. E. Sunday school Sabbath morning. Many of the church members cannot get up in time for Sunday school at 10:45 o'clock, but can get up in time for 7 o'clock a. m. for a prayer meeting.

Not a few are suffering from bad colds or la grippe.

Frank Reed had an operation performed upon him for fistula. The local physician performed the operation. At present he is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Combs called on Mr. Combs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Combs, over Sunday.

B. F. Miller transacted business on his farm near here last week. Verne Harlow manages his farm.

Soon the wedding bells will again jingle in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Combs visited in Rushville over Sunday.

If you are suffering from biliousness, constipation, indigestion, chronic headache, invest one cent in a postal card, send to Chamberlain Medicine Co., Moines, Iowa, with your name and address plainly on the back, and they will forward you a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Sold by all dealers.

Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists.

A surprise was given Master Frank Hinchman last Friday evening, the 27th inst. The occasion was his birthday. A party of sixteen were conveyed three miles north to the home of his parents. There were six teachers, or as we used to style it, ported by means of a hay wagon. The young people enjoyed the ride hugely as also they more than enjoyed the entertainment and refreshments. About the "wee sma" hours of night they embarked wishing Master Frank many more happy returns for the return trip, which was uneventful.

M. H. Fielding has contracted with Jones & Stamm to construct a modern barn on his farm near Dublin, Indiana.

J. C. Gregg, Henry Gregg, Willie Martin, J. C. Jarvis, Mr. Prather, Mr. Colvin and Mr. Higgs visited Washington Camp No. 2 P. O. S. of A. last Friday evening and initiated the Dungan brothers of Connersville. After the work was conferred a member of Washington Camp No. 2 passed the red apples which was very much relished by all present. This was followed by some good talks by the brethren on the topic of "Why I am a Patriotic Son of America."

T. C. Rees says he just returned from a very prosperous business trip in the Southwestern part of the State where he has been installing quite a number of lighting systems. Sometimes he has put in the modern up-to-date touch button system.

Ed Turner seems to have quite a good deal of business or pleasure at Richmond.

We learn that our pastor, the Rev. Black, is quite sick at New Salem. We hope it is not a serious sickness.

Many persons find themselves affected with a persistent cough after an attack of influenza. As this cough can be promptly cured by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it should not be allowed to run on until it becomes troublesome. Sold by all dealers.

Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists.

Mrs. Austin's Buckwheat Flour gives you a really wholesome breakfast.

DOROTHY ARNOLD

Millionaire's Daughter.
Mysteriously Missing.

HER WHEREABOUTS
STILL A MYSTERY

The Missing Dorothy Arnold Left
Absolutely No Trace.

New York, Jan. 30.—Worldwide publicity has failed to reveal even the suggestion of a trace of Miss Dorothy H. C. Arnold, the daughter of Francis R. Arnold, a millionaire, who disappeared Dec. 12. Miss Arnold's father fears she has been killed.

Mr. Arnold, who is seventy-three years old, maintains that if she were alive she would communicate with him, especially in view of the wide publicity that has now been given her disappearance.

The offer of a reward of $1,000 for information concerning the whereabouts of the girl has revealed no clue.

The police were asked today to drag the lakes of Central park for the body of Miss Arnold. A telephone message to the Arnold home suggested to the family a plausible explanation for her disappearance—that she had been attacked in the park while walking home after dark on the evening of Dec. 12 last and thrown into one of the lakes.

Trivial Thing Leads to Tragedy.

Westville, Ill., Jan. 30.—Samuel Willis, a Westville alderman, shot and killed Thomas Butrimovich, employed in Mayor John Slaza's meat shop in this village, with a shotgun. Willis was arrested and lodged in jail at Danville charged with murder. The tragedy grew out of the breaking of a show case in the meat shop by Willis's little son.

Millions For Port Improvements.

London, Jan. 30.—The port authorities here propose to spend more than $70,000,000 in improving the dock and harbor facilities of the Thames estuary, with the view to making London in reality as well as in name the first port of the world.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

John Lockwood Kipling, father of Rudyard Kipling, the author, is dead in London.

Fire caused a loss of $160,000 to the Carr Milling company's plant at Hamilton, Ohio.

A plan for bringing the Olympian games to the United States in 1916 is being talked over in congress.

A force of rebel Indians are again giving considerable trouble in the vicinity of Ojiltin, in the state of Oaxaca, Mexico.

A George Junior republic will be founded in England, says William R. George, founder of the republic idea in this country.

A Cotton Belt passenger train was wrecked while entering the city limits of Brinkley, Ark. No one was killed, but five were seriously injured.

Fire in a wing of the Lexington Trust company building at Lexington, Ky., did about $5,000 damage and resulted in the death of Thomas Gleason, a saloon keeper.

With the convening of the Sixty-second congress, eleven months in the future, the Democrats of the ways and means committee are now trying to make up a tentative committee slate.

The appointment of the Duke of Connaught as governor general of Canada is officially announced. The duchess will accompany him to Montreal. He will enter upon the office in September.

Baron Kuno Von Eltz, nephew of the prime minister of Hungary, has secured a job as laborer on the new mill of the United States Worsted company now in process of erection at Lawrence, Mass.

Miss Lillian Lifford, who was seriously burned at her home in Ellitsville, Ind., more than a week ago, is dead. Litana Skelton, the girl's lover, is in jail charged with setting her clothes on fire.

On account of difficulty with the examination in mechanics, forty-one members of the second class of midshipmen at Annapolis have been reported as unsatisfactory and may be asked to resign.

Coming
DR. J. A. WALLS

THE SPECIALIST,
Will be at the Windsor Hotel,
Rushville, Ind.

Thursday, Feb. 2, until 3:30 p. m.
CONSULTATION AND ONE MONTH'S TREATMENT FREE.

He TREATS SUCCESSFULLY

Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Kidneys, Liver and Bladder, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and all Diseases of the Blood, Epilepsy (or falling fits), Cancer, Scrofula, Private and Nervous Diseases, Female Diseases, Night Losses, Loss of Vitality from Indiscretions in youth or maturer years, Piles, Fistula, Fissure and Ulceration of the Rectum, without detention from business.

RUPTURE POSITIVELY CURED AND GUARANTEED.
It will be to your interest to consult the Doctor if you are suffering from disease, and if he cannot cure you, he will tell you so at once. Remember the time and place. Will return every four weeks.
OFFICE, NO. 21 SOUTH TENTH STREET, RICHMOND, IND.

POLITICAL MAP
TO BE ALTERED

Legislative Reapportionment the Next Problem.

THEY WILL TACKLE IT AT ONCE

Senate Committee on Apportionment Will Lose No Time in Bringing in a Bill For the Redistricting of State For Legislative Purposes—A Chance That No Great Changes in Present Districts Will Be Required.

Indianapolis, Jan. 30.—The majority is beginning to realize the necessity of tackling the reapportionment problem at once. The present week will see the first steps taken toward redistricting the state into legislative and congressional districts. The majority members of the committees will "get down to business" on the program, it is understood, with a meeting of the senate committee on legislative apportionment this evening.

There is a disposition in the house to await the action of the senate, although Chairman Lieb of the house committee on legislative apportionment is at work on a bill to be introduced as soon as the ways and means committee of the house, of which several members of the apportionment committee are members, finishes its work on the appropriations bill.

Republican leaders have come to realize that the only thing they can do is to let the Democrats go ahead and reapportion the state and then fight the bill before the supreme court, which the law requires shall pass upon the measure. The supreme court does not pass on the congressional apportionment law. It is required only that it shall consider the legislative apportionment. Some of the Republican leaders believe that any legislative apportionment the Democrats may enact can be knocked out in the supreme court.

The Congressional Districts.

It is the purpose of the Democrats in both senate and house not to consult the Republican members of the four apportionment committees until the bills are framed. There is a strong sentiment among the Democrats of both houses that the state should be redistricted both as to legislative and congressional districts, although Governor Marshall, the Democratic members in congress from Indiana, Attorney General Thomas M. Honan and Chairman U. S. Jackson do not believe it is necessary to change the boundaries of the congressional districts.

Romus Stuart, assistant secretary of the senate, who is considered an expert on apportionment, will be called into consultation by the senate committees when they begin their work. Senator Carleton is chairman of the senate committee on congressional apportionment and is also a member of the senate committee on legislative apportionment. Senator Carleton says that he expects to introduce the present congressional apportionment law as a bill, have it referred to his committee and then take up the work of amending the bill so as to conform to the ideas of the Democratic leaders. He said that after full consideration is given to the matter it may be found that Governor Marshall, the Democratic representatives, Attorney General Honan and Chairman Jackson are right and that there should be no change at all.

Both senate committees on apportionment will ask the members of the senate to submit suggestions for changes in the district boundaries. Chairman Lieb of the house legislative apportionment committee has already asked the Democratic members of the house to submit suggestions.

The Appropriations Measure.

That it will be practically impossible to keep the specific appropriations bill down to the limit of $300,000 for 1912 and $415,000 for 1913, recommended by Governor Marshall in his message, is the statement of Representative Joseph M. Cravens, chairman of the ways and means committee of the house, which, with the finance committee of the senate, is drafting the appropriations measures. "There are entirely too many new buildings and other essentials that are needed for the state institutions," said Mr. Cravens. "So far the committees have not decided to grant the state school for the deaf the $13,000 it wants for a laundry and the Indiana boys' school the $12,000 it wants for a new cottage. There must be a reduction in these things somewhere. The regular appropriations will exceed the total appropriations of two years ago, because coal bills will necessitate an increase."

The specific appropriations made by the legislature two years ago amounted to $1,800,000. New buildings for the southeastern hospital for the insane at Madison, the new village for epileptics at Newcastle, the state tuberculosis hospital at Rockville, and the new school for the deaf added to the total in 1909. A new hospital for criminal insane was added to the Michigan City prison, a new cottage was built for the school for feeble-minded youth, a new medical department was erected for the northern hospital for the insane and a new hospital was provided for the southern hospital for the insane at Evansville.

Smoke FAIR PROMISE 5c Cigars.

HAIR WHITE AS SNOW

Restored to Natural Color with One Bottle of

WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY

The Only True Hair Restorer, Tonic and Rejuvenator

ALMOST A MIRACLE

My hair was as white as snow when I commenced using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. One bottle restored my hair to its natural dark brown color. As I am now 70 years old, I consider the result most remarkable. It is an agreeable and refreshing hair dressing, keeping the hair soft and glossy, without being in the least greasy or sticky.

WM. WESTLAKE,
210 West Main Street, Rochester, N. Y.

Why hesitate when WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY is daily producing just such results?

After years of study and analysis of the hair, we have been able to produce an ideal Hair Tonic and Restorer, which contains an actual constituent of hair, combined with ingredients of recognized merit for treatment of hair and scalp diseases. It makes and keeps the scalp clean and healthy, gives life, strength and lustre to the hair, and restores faded and gray hair to natural color.

No matter how long and thick your hair is, WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY will make it longer and thicker. It will remove every trace of dandruff in a few days, stop falling in one week, and start a new growth in from one to three months.

These are facts that have been proven in scores of cases. WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY is guaranteed to do all that it is claimed to do or the price will be refunded.

50c. AND $1.00 A BOTTLE AT ALL DRUGGISTS

If Your Druggist Does Not Keep It Send 50c. in Stamps and We Will Send You a Large Bottle, Express Prepaid

74 CORTLANDT STREET
NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

Wyeth Chemical Company,

FREE

For Sale and Recommended
by
Special Agents

Hargrove & Mullin - Drugs
Quality First

For Sale and Recommended
by Special Agents

Mayo's Medical and Surgical Institute

1104 North Alabama Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

DR. W. R. MAYO

Specialist, will be at

Rushville, Ind.
Grand Hotel

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3.

And Every Four Weeks Thereafter.

DR. MAYO TREATS EPILEPSY.

Lung Trouble and Catarrh successfully treated by his INHALATION METHOD. By this METHOD the balmy oils are supplied directly to the diseased parts. In most cases of LUNG TROUBLE and CATARRH a cure is effected.

DR. MAYO has treated a number of cases of Cancer without the No Cure no Pay.

VARICOCELE CURED WITHOUT PAIN OR USE OF KNIFE.

Dr. Mayo treats successfully all forms of Chronic Diseases that are curable, such as Diseases of the Brain, Heart, Lungs, Throat, Eye and Ear, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder, Blood Poison, Rectum, Female Diseases, Impotency, Seminal Emissions, Nervous Diseases, Catarrh, Rupture, Piles, Stricture, Gleet, Eczema, Epilepsy, etc., Dropsy, Varietoele, Hydorele, etc.

ALL DISEASES OF MEN SUCCESSFULLY TREATED and a written guarantee given every person we treat. We have a new method for the treatment of men by which the medicine is applied directly to the diseased parts.

After an examination we will tell you just what we can do for you. If we cannot benefit or cure, we will frankly and honestly tell you so. Patients can be treated successfully at a distance. Write for examination and question blanks. Street car and carriages direct to Institute. Call on or address

W. R. MAYO, M. D., President, or W. B. GILLESPIE, General Manager, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Bedford, Indiana, June 28, 1906.
The cancer on my face is entirely healed under Dr Mayo's treatment. Employ him if you have cancer. JOHN HUNTER, Bedford, R. R. No. 5.

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN

Published Daily except Sunday by THE REPUBLICAN COMPANY

J. FUSHER, President and General Superintendent.
Office in Republican Building, Northwest Corner Second and Perkins Streets.

Entered as second-class matter March 22, 1904, at the postoffice at Rushville, Indiana, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

One week, delivered by carrier..... $1.00
One year in the city by carrier..... $4.00
One year delivered by mail..... $3.00

TELEPHONE NUMBER, 1111.

ROY HARROLD, City Editor.

Monday, January 30, 1911.

THIS PAPER REPRESENTED FOR FOREIGN ADVERTISING BY THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

GENERAL OFFICES
NEW YORK AND CHICAGO
BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES

Wonder How They Like It?

(Union City Times.)

Two years ago last November there was an election held in the State of Indiana in which the Republican candidate for governor went down in defeat on the temperance issue. No man made a better fight and deserved to win as did Watson, but a majority said they did not want the State "dry" and Tom Marshall, a pronounced friend of brewers was chosen. The morning after election several of the leading "Prohibitionists" of this section met on the post-office corner and congratulated each other on the defeat of the Republican ticket. Wonder how they feel today on the passage of the Proctor bill?

During the last campaign the Republican was an out-and-out administration paper, hence it fully endorses the following from the Marion Chronicle:

"The resolutions adopted by the Republican editors of the State emphatically endorsing the Taft administration and describing its record and policies as the only proper rallying ground for Republicans in Indiana and elsewhere, reflects the sentiment of the Republican newspaper fraternity throughout this State. The Indiana Republican newspapers are going to be from now on on the firing line for the Taft administration. President Taft is the logical Republican nominee in 1912, and will be triumphantly re-elected. Demagogues and time servers can fool the people part of the time, but they can not fool a majority of the people for any great length of time, and the Taft administration is growing stronger as the people are beginning to realize the facts about it.

The Fort Wayne News has this to say in regard to the National Progressive Republican League:

"The so-called progressive Republican movement appears to be that of a number of amiable gentlemen who desire to supplant the present leaders of the Republican party. If they are able to slip one over in the manner they have chosen they will no doubt be hailed as heroes and crowned with the victorious wreaths reserved for those who win. If they fail, however, the con tumelious stone will be their portion. A suspicious public may be pardoned for refraining from regarding them wholly unselfish and thoroughly disinterested patriots that they proclaim themselves to be."

Gloucester, Mass., is hard hit by free fish. We are all sorry for a town of fine old sea dogs, but if it would plant its crop on dry land like the rest of us, it would have fewer widows and orphans.

Texas is said to have an onion day. One would think that anybody that had to live in Texas would have plenty of cause to weep without vegetable assistance.

Our water power is wasted, says Missouri's water power commissioner. It always seemed to us that Missourians were much more interested in other liquids.

The Tennessee senator, Luke Lea, is a newspaper man. When it comes to doing business, the blue pencil is greater than the law book.

The people who put Mrs. Eddy's body in the center of 35 tons of solid steel and concrete, seem to think that they can even head off Gabriel.

EDITORIALETTES.

Tuesday, January 31.—Will be a fitting time to discuss the local option question. The evening will be a very desirable time for spending more than your income that is in case you have any.

We ought to be able to make a little wheeze out of that Story story.

That reminds us of that paper, the "Daily Breeze" which is published in an Illinois town. It never blows itself up.

From the daily dispatches most people were lead to believe that Mrs. Schenck was being tried for the murder of her husband. Now he breaks forth with a complete, life-like interview.

While William Price was city marshal, he was so fond of horses that he carried a Colt with him all the time. He still is. Is what? Fond of horses, of course.

Over at Danville, they must have found that they were stepping on one another's toes.

The New Castle Courier says that the Rushville man who snored away a burglar ought to get it patented.

We would suggest that he get it copyrighted since the words and music would have to be printed.

The days are getting warmer and the bills smaller. That will sound right good next spring, when it is set to music.

According to the fashion column not so much hair is to be worn by women who haven't much.

* UNCLE SAM HAS BEST SAFE. *

The United States government is now in possession of the finest and largest safe in the world. It is located deep underground below the United States Treasury building at Washington, and in this high strong box it is the intention to keep in storage at all times not less than $500,000,000 in currency. Of course, this new government depository of wealth is not a "safe" in the ordinary interpretation of the word, but rather a vault nearly 54 feet in length, close to 20 feet wide and about 16 feet in height.

The exterior wall of the new vault are of the heaviest steel construction and the door and the port holes provided for ventilation are closed by heavy steel doors fitted with the latest approved locks of the heaviest and most intricate construction, but the main safeguard for this subterranean wealth lies in an electric protective system that cost $9,000 and which enmeshes the entire vault in a close-drawn network of electric wires—more than seventeen miles of wire in the aggregate—which sounds alarms at any interference. This system is tested every fifteen minutes day and night. The only means of reaching the new vault is by a secret elevator, guarded by the treasury watchmen.

The United States fishing industry employed 229,119 persons at last report.

Mrs. Austin's Buckwheat Flour gives you a really good wholesome breakfast.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS.

WOULD ENACT A MANDATE ACT

Senator E. E. Moore Will Introduce Bill, Providing For Important Changes in Civil Code.

COMMITTEE FAVORS MEASURE

Rush-Fayette-Hancock Senator Says Present Statute Governing Legal Procedure is Very Old.

A bill which Senator E. E. Moore of Connersville expects to have passed during the present session provides an important change in the civil code with reference to actions in mandamus proceedings, says the Indianapolis Star. The bill has been reported favorably by unanimous vote of the committee on judiciary (B) which is made up of some of the best lawyers in the Senate, many of whom have expressed the belief that its provisions will be valuable in civil practice.

The proposed law seeks to modernize actions in mandamus suits by providing for the joining of the issues of law and fact, the same as in other civil proceedings. In introducing the bill Senator Moore said he believed writs of mandate should be modernized, inasmuch as the common law making them possible has come down to present day court practice from England where originally the King in person issued them. Since then, Mr. Moore says, there has been little change in the common law with reference to mandates. In explaining the provisions of his bill Senator Moor said:

The proposed law preserves the cause of action in all essentials as it now exists under the code and at common law. The writ of mandate is the survival of a royal prerogative. Originally it was issued by the King of England in person, and later by his special court of the King's bench.

"As the right was then exercised, and as it has come down to us today in our Indiana code and common law practice the specific duty demanded must be clear and certain, for, if the mandate of the writ be for more relief than the law warrants, the writ is void and no relief at all can be granted under it.

"If the duty sought to be enforced by writ of mandate were always perfectly clear and undisputed, there would be no particular object in changing the practice. In fact, the mandate of a court to have such duty performed would seldom be necessary. But as a matter of fact, the legal question of whether or not such alleged duty exists is the first point that arises and is the vital one in the case. The trial of such causes under this proposed change in the law would be greatly facilitated. The defendant would appear and answer or demur, or default, as the case might be. If a trial be had, issues of law and fact will be joined, the question of whether or not the alleged duty as a matter of law does not exist will be determined and if so, to what extent and in what way the decree of mandate shall be molded so as to give the relator such relief, and only such relief as he may, by law, be entitled to, will be decided."

FOX WON.

Five men of Knightstown on horseback indulged in a fox chase which took them to Morristown where the fox won.

SALARIES OF TRUSTEES.

Representative Voris of Montgomery county, has introduced a bill to regulate the salaries of township trustees in townships where there is a population of twelve thousand or more with a city of nine thousand or more. The Voris bill would make the trustee's salary $1,200 a year, with an additional $50 for clerk hire.

Notice.

William Flanagan, the Irish Auctioneer, posted on pedigreed stock and values. Call or write me for dates. Milton, Ind. 255138

Best by Test, Fair Promise 5c Cigar.

CALLS ATTENTION TO NOTABLE WORKS

May W. Donnan Points Out "Reminiscences" and "Twenty Years at Hull House."

PROMETHEUS IS SYMBOLIC

At the regular meeting of her study class Saturday afternoon, Mrs. May W. Donnan of Indianapolis called attention to two books that are notable in the field of contemporary literature. Of Goldwin Smith's "Reminiscences" she said the book expresses the opinion of one who was deeply occupied with the general welfare. It is of value, not only because it presents information regarding one of the most distinctive personalities of the nineteenth century, but is rich in episodes and ultimate sketches of publicists, artists and men of letters whom the writer knew.

Mrs. Donnan said that Jane Addams' "Twenty Years at Hull House" is a faithful reflection of the spirit and activities of the Hull House settlement; it is replete with observations and the report of most interesting experiences that few modern books dealing directly with social problems have given so much light on the alleviations of the wrongs of the social order.

Of "Legends in Literature," the subject for the term, Mrs. Donnan said that the story of Prometheus is symbolic of the teaching power of sorrow and pain, and the nobility that comes from suffering. She compared the four characters in literature that stand for types of suffering, Prometheus, Job, Faust and Milton's Satan. Mrs. Donnan has so much grace in telling a story that whatever her subject, whether a late book or an old legend, she invests it with much freshness of interest by reason of her own cleverness.

Mrs. Austin's Buckwheat Flour gives you a really good wholesome breakfast.

Smoke FAIR PROMISE 5c Cigars.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palace has a Lubin film for tonight, showing two subjects. The first is "Will it Ever Come True." This is a comedy full of hearty laughs. The second, "Goin' Some" is another comedy. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Star Grand will present tonight the LaCroix, the world's greatest European gymnasts. They carry their own electrical effects and electrical bicycle and wardrobe. This act is something new. It is the greatest novelty ever attempted, once seen never forgotten. The film for tonight is an American entitled "The Squaw and the Man," a western drama of the Apache country and it is a masterpiece. Earl Robertson will sing "When the Sun Sinks in the West."

The Vaude management offers for tonight more than their usual double program of two big reels of pictures. As a special attraction Kennedy and Udel will appear in their "The Rube and the Girl" act which is said to be one of the best vaudeville skits off the big circuit. The Reliance film, "Under a Changing Sky" will be the headliner of the pictures. It is a drama of rare merits, acted with skill as all pictures of that stamp are. The Nestor film, "A Daughter of the Mines" tells a western story, replete with stirring scenes and situations. A new illustrated song will be part of the program.

Best by Test, Fair Promise 5c Cigar.

Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists.

WILL BUILD CAR LINE.

O. D. Emory, the chief lineman of the I. & C., who has resigned his position, will give up his position here tomorrow and go to Indianapolis, where he will construct a private street car line from Shelby street to the Big Four shops at Beech Grove.

6%

The Safety of Money

is quite as important as the accumulation of it. Entrust your money to us and you can rest assured as to its safety. You will get it when you want it.

We Pay 6% Compound Interest on These Accounts

Building Association No. 10

Office at the Farmers Trust Co.

READ OFF THE MENU

to your companion and each item will seem better than the previous one. At this restaurant you can always be sure of a good dinner no matter what you order. We strive to make each dish on our menu a gem and that we succeed you'll admit after once ordering from it.

WHITEHEAD CAFE

We're Going to Start Something THIS WEEK

Every Suit and Overcoat in Stock Goes on Sale This Week at the Following Prices:

Lot No. 1.

$15.00 and $18.00 Suits and Overcoats.
This Week - - $11.75

Lot No. 2.

$20.00 and $22.50 Suits and Overcoats
This Week - - $13.75

Lot No. 3.

$25.00 and $27.50 Suits and Overcoats
This Week - - $16.75

Special Lot of Boys' Suits - - $2.75
Special Lot of Mens' Suits - - $3.75
Special Lot of Odd Vests - - 25c
Special Lot of Boys' Knee Pants - - 25c

O. P. C. H.

Main Street

Rushville

6%

4%

A Practical Investment

If you have a sum of money on hands which is not earning interest, why not deposit it with this institution whereby you will receive interest?

The Farmers Trust Co.

Acts as Administrator—Executor—Guardian—Trustee

3%

2%

Correct Styles

ia Wall Paper are always to be found in our Decorating Department. Come in and let us show you our line of Wall Paper, Window Shades, Chisel Floor Finish and Capital City Liquid Paint. Anything in the Decorating line is always to be found in our up-to-date Decorating Department.

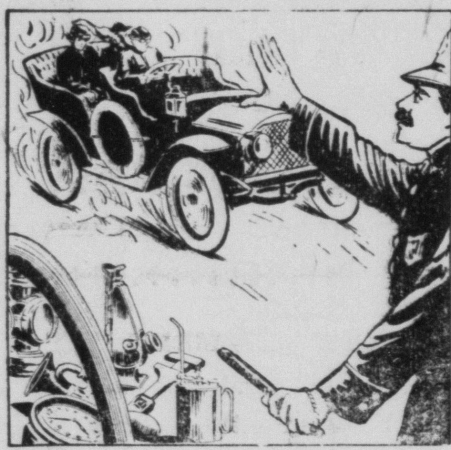

Good Goods at Reasonable Prices.

F. B. Johnson & Co.

Drugs and Wall Paper

Free Delivery

Phone 1408

WHEN THE OFFICER HOLDS YOU UP for violating the speed law one of our speedometers will be handy to prove that you were not traveling faster than the legal rate. Better get one; it is reliable and should be on every auto. Get your other auto supplies here. If your car goes too slow try some of our oil. It makes a car go like greased lightning.

WILLIAM E. BOWEN
Phone 1364.

..Star-Grand..

FILM (AMERICAN)
"The Squaw and the Man"

THE LA CROIX'S
World's Greatest European Gymnastics

SONG Mr. Earl Robertson
"When the Sun Sinks to Rest"

5c ADMISSION 10c

Palace Theatre

FILM (LUBIN)
"Will It Ever Come True"
"Go'in Some"

A New Song

5c - ADMISSION - 5c

Vaudet Theatre

FILM (RELIANCE)
"Under a Changing Sky"
"A Daughter of the Mine"
(NESTORS)

HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE
Kennedy and Udell in "The Rube and the Girl"
EXTRA FINE

5c ADMISSION 10c

Purchase Advertised Articles

PERSONAL POINTS

—T. A. Craig visited in Indianapolis today.

—Mrs. W. Allen visited in Indianapolis today.

—J. Ed Caldwell visited in Indianapolis today.

—Wallace Morgan transacted business in Indianapolis today.

—George Schrader was a visitor in Indianapolis Saturday night.

—Frank Rosey spent Sunday in Milroy the guest of friends.

—Carl Miller of Shelbyville spent Sunday with his parents in Manilla.

—Arthur Kinnear has returned home after an extended visit in Fortville.

—Michael Lawler spent Saturday and Sunday in Laurel the guest of friends.

—Miss Ethel Wenger of Connersville was the guest of friends here yesterday.

—Miss Iva Haverstock of Indianapolis was the guest of Miss Hazel Moore yesterday.

—Miss Margaret McManus of Connersville was the guest of friends in this city yesterday.

—A. P. Wagoner returned today from Warsaw, where he attended the funeral of his cousin.

—Roscoe Ward, who is attending business college in Indianapolis visited here yesterday.

—Tom Hiner of Bloomington was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hiner, yesterday.

—Miss Jean Bishop returned today from Greencastle, where she was the guest of friends over Sunday.

—Miss Mattie B. Lacey of Indianapolis was the guest of friends in this city Saturday and Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Mauzy of San Francisco, Cal., are the guests of friends and relatives in this city.

—Miss Effie Riggs of Connersville is the guest of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. James Riggs in North Perkins street.

—A. B. Irvin has gone to Chicago for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. D. L. Kiser and to attend the automobile show.

—Mrs. Louis M. Clark returned yesterday from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. N. G. Wills, in Connersville.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Black and family of West Indianapolis are visiting friends and relatives in New Salem.

—Berlin Caldwell of Indianapolis was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Caldwell in West First street yesterday.

—Miss Alice Winship, who is attending Indiana University spent the week-end the guest of her father, John Winship.

—Mrs. George Schrader, Mrs. James Riggs and Miss Effie Riggs were theater goers in Indianapolis Saturday night.

—Charles Broadhead has resigned his position at the I. & C. traction offices and will go to Harrisburg, Ill., to accept a position with a coal company.

The Ladies Aid Society of the St. Paul M. E. church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Samuel L. Innis at her home in North Perkins street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Young attended the revival meeting at the First Presbyterian church in Connersville last night, where Evangelist Ramsey is conducting the services.

—Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hambrook of Greensburg visited Mrs. Nora Ross over Sunday.

—Cary Carson returned to Indianapolis this morning after spending Sunday in this city.

—Miss Nannie Hogsett returned to Indianapolis this morning to resume her studies in business college.

—Miss Grace Stamm has returned home after a visit with Mrs. Harry Shirkey in Connersville.

—Epos Neal of Chicago is expected home this evening after a short visit with friends their.

—The Misses Lena Cooley, Ruth Bartine and Pearl Kubler of Connersville were the guests of friends here yesterday.

—J. B. Winship, Miss Laura Trusler and Mrs. Lincoln Guffin are in Chicago buying goods for the Guffin Dry Goods Company.

SOCIETY NEWS

The Elite club was entertained this afternoon by Mrs. Harry Lakin at her home in North Main street.

* * *

The Tri Kappas will be entertained this evening by Mrs. Lawrence M. Root at her country home south of the city.

* * *

The Sewing Circle of the Catholic church will be entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Fitzgerald in North Sexton street.

* * *

Hubert Innis and Will E. Newbold will give a dance in the Modern Woodman hall in Milroy next Friday evening. Good music will be furnished.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Clark will entertain with a six o'clock dinner this evening at their home in North Main street in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Looney, who leaves soon for California.

* * *

Indianapolis Star: Mrs. Cora Campbell Barnett has issued invitations for a company Wednesday afternoon of this week at her home in the Lodge in honor of Miss Mildred Moore, a bride-elect.

* * *

Indianapolis Star: Mrs. Louise V. Moore has issued verbal invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mildred Moore, and William Major Amos of Rushville, which will take place Saturday evening, Feb. 4, at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hutchinson, 1024 North Capitol avenue.

* * *

Mrs. Lawrence M. Root and Mrs. Lowell M. Green of this city attended the seventh annual reunion of the Iota Chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, held at the Claypool hotel in Indianapolis Saturday afternoon. The Iota is the DePauw chapter of the fraternity, and the hostesses for the day were the members of the Indianapolis Alumnae Club. Mrs. Guy Walker of New York City, president of the chapter, came for the luncheon and acted as toastmistress. Miss Claudia Armstrong of Eaton, who has often visited Mrs. L. M. Root here, gave a toast on "The Chapter." The luncheon tables were attractively decorated with narcissus and the favors were address books in the Kappa Kappa Gamma colors, dark and light blue.

* * *

The Indiana chapters of the Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority celebrated Founder's day with a luncheon at the Columbia club in Indianapolis Saturday. Miss Rhea Bigham, Miss Florence Frazee, Mrs. Jessie Spann Gary, Miss Anna Mege, Miss Louise Mauzy, who is a Theta at Indiana University and Miss Erema Wilk who is a student at Butler College, all of this city, were guests.

The members of the Zeta Alumnae Chapter of Indianapolis acted as hostesses. The large dining room was arranged with one large table, where the toastmistress and the guests giving toasts were seated, and with many small round tables. For the toastmistress' table the center decoration was a tall glass basket filled with yellow jonquils, the handle entwined with smilax. The Theta colors are yellow and black, and the small tables were decorated with smilax and with yellow tapers capped with yellow and black shades. The menu cards were decorated with the phrase, "Happy Alpha Theta," done in black and gold. A harpist played during the luncheon, at the close of which Miss Fern Brendel of Zionsville sang the "Theta Prayer."

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

Smoke FAIR PROMISE 5c Cigars.

STILL AFTER IT.

Charles M. Rock of Morristown, and well known here, is a live candidate for the Morristown postoffice job. The appointment has not been made yet, but Mr. Rock thinks he has an equal chance with the rest of the applicants.

GOWDY DEFEATED.

In a game between the Blue Ridge basket ball team and the five from Gowdy, Rush county, at Blue Ridge, Friday night, Blue Ridge was victorious by a score of 23 to 18. Manilla was to have played, but the game was postponed until next Wednesday night.

GO TO TOPEKA.

Mrs. James E. Watson, daughter Katherine and son Joseph Cannon, went to Indianapolis this morning, where they joined M. Watson. They will go to Topeka, Kansas, where the former congressman will deliver an address.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS.

FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE is something everyone wants to enjoy, but at the same time it is something that not everyone wants to work for.

To become independent one must pay the price, which is Industry and Thrift. For the vast majority of us, the only road to competence lies through hard work and economy.

Successful business men are unanimous in expressing the opinion that success comes through savings.

We believe in that thoroughly. We have seen its truth illustrated a great many times right in our own experience and observation in this community.

We encourage your thrift by providing you with an absolutely safe place for your savings and by paying you 3 per cent compound interest on them.

RUSH COUNTY NATIONAL BANK.

If Its Got Cox's Name On It. Its Correct.

It is Knowledge rather than "Knack" which enables you to dress both correctly and becomingly.

No part of your wearing apparel changes n styles more often or more radically than does your shoes.

That is the reason why so many hundred people who care to be correctly shod and who are particular about their personal appearance always buy their shoes of us.

We carry a sufficient variety of correct styles to enable you to express your own individuality in your selection.

The New Shoe Fashions are almost always first shown in this store. Come in and see the season's latest.

BEN A. COX, (THE SHOE MAN)

232 North Main Street

N. B. You can buy shoes of us, after supper. We are always open until 8 p. m.

A New One in Floor Finish

Wears longer, looks better, is cheaper than grained or varnish stained floors or lineoleum or ingrain fillers for rug borders. Call and let us show you. Do it now and avoid the spring rush, when everybody is busy.

F. E. WOLCOTT, DruggistYou Will Find Plenty of Little and Big Clover and Timothy Seed also Sack Clover and Re-cleaned Clover and at prices you will buy nothing better in the city. I think this is a good time to buy. Timothy went up $1.17 today on the 100 pounds on the market. I also have plenty of linseed meal on hands. Come soon as I have seeds of all kinds on hand.

Harness, Light and Heavy

Made out of the best oak and tanned by Mooney Bros., at Columbus, Ind. This is the best leather made on earth today. This is no lie. I have built harness for the standard Oil Company. You can see them on their teams at any time. Four sets of my harness go to Texas. The price is $60.00 a set. I will guarantee the harness to last 15 years, if you take care of them. Pipe and Chain Harness on hands at all times and at any price you want them. You had better get the best for they are the cheapest.

I am building better harness for the money than any firm in the State hand made. I want you to come and see them before you order. Sam Young says he used a set of harness made by me, for 25 years. Sam says they will last ten years longer. You know Sam won't lie.

J. W. TOMPKINS

Established 1859

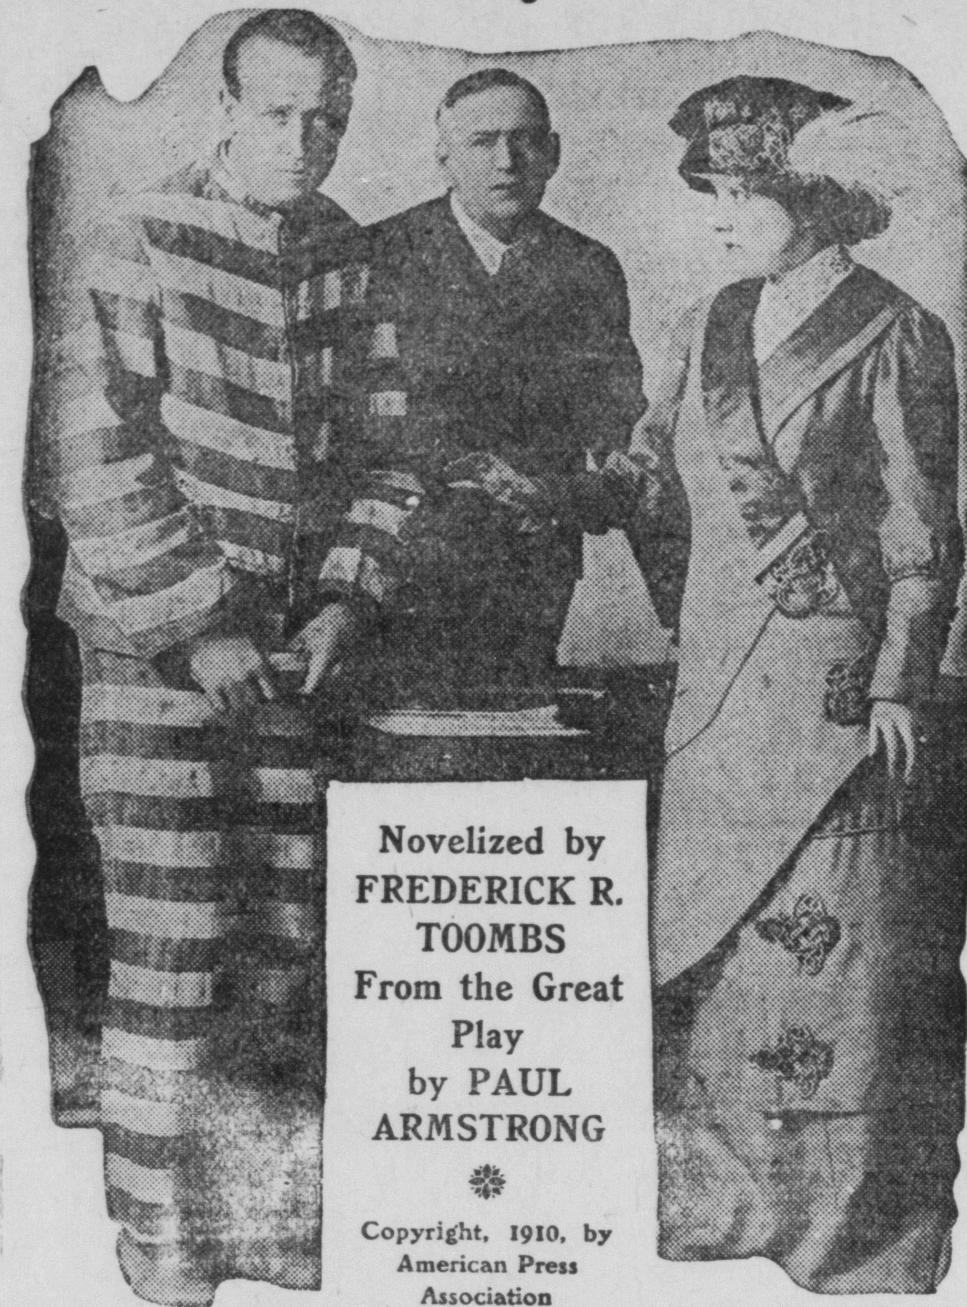

J. B. SCHRICHTE SONS

Our display of monuments this year excels all former efforts. We can give you expert advice on all subjects relating to monumental work. If you are interested come and see us and secure a bargain at our works.

BEAUTY AND PERMANENCE OUR MOTTO

J. B. SCHRICHTE SONS

"Alias Jimmy Valentine"

Novelized by
FREDERICK R.
TOOMBS
From the Great Play
by PAUL
ARMSTRONG

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association

JIMMY VALENTINE, WARDEN HANDLER AND ROSE LANE.

Another step; he raised the weapon; his forefinger began to tighten on the trigger. But Valentine's keen ear caught the sound of the creak of Avery's stiffening elbow joint as it straightened. Wheeling with his old time alacrity, the ex-convict saw his danger, struck down the firearm with his powerful left hand and wrested it from his would be assailant's grasp. He broke the weapon open and saw that all the chambers were loaded. Snapping it shut, he thrust it into his pocket and hurried the now cowering Avery from him to the floor.

"You fool!" sneered Valentine. "Get up and be a man."

The former prison mate of his conqueror stiffly regained his feet.

"I'll kill him—I'll kill him yet!" he exclaimed to Red, who had followed him from behind the curtain.

"Too bad you didn't get him," growled Red disgustedly.

Valentine, however, cut short their talk by warning them of their loud tones. At his pronouncement that they were both crazy Red reminded him of what he had told him about the detectives and their stool pigeons.

"It was a lie, too," put in Avery. "I never stuck that old man up. I'm talking on the level."

"I knew Doyle was lying," answered Valentine reassuringly. "It's a hard game we're up against."

Red agreed with the speaker.

"Well, now, maybe you believe that it ain't so easy to turn square. Listen Jimmy. Avery and me have got a job worked out. We know every twist and turn of the joint. I've prowled it twice. We were going to use the soup. He showed a bottle. 'See, old nitroglycerin, but we heard you were going to be sprung, and we waited. You can grab that gopher tonight, and you can bet with us outside no one can get to you.'"

Red and Avery eyed him anxiously, expectantly.

"I've opened my last safe, Red," was the calm rejoinder.

"So you're going to work, eh, with a copper at your heels?" sneared Red.

"I'm going to work, and I won't be a stool pigeon."

"You're going to give up the game, a graft like you got—you, with your—"

"I'm done."

"Well, what in heaven's name— I got

Rheumatism Relieved In Six Hours.

DR. DETCHON'S RELIEF For RHEUMATISM usually relieves severest cases in a few hours. Its action upon the system is remarkable and effective. It removes the cause and the disease quickly disappears. First dose benefits. 75c and $1.00. Sold by Hargrove & Mullin, druggists. Nov2mo3 says it is surprising how many old-fashioned remedies are being used, which goes to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old, time-tried remedies. For instance, for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy, nothing equaling our grandmothers' "sage tea" has ever been discovered. Although, by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew has been made more effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer. Nowadays when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or garret for herbs and making the "tea" ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

AN UP-TO-DATE DRUGGIST

Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists.

it—it's a woman!"

"I have met a decent girl, Red, the kind I knew as a boy—my sister's kind. It was she who got me out of that hole at Sing Sing, and I have promised myself—"

"You don't think she or her folks would stand for you, do you?"

"If I was on the level she just might."

"With a copper telling lies about you to her folks unless you delivered me or Red?" interpolated old Avery.

"Jimmy, for God's sake don't go against that straight girl game. It'll only break your heart, then what?" asked Red earnestly.

The released prisoner was thoughtful a moment.

"I've thought it out," he finally said.

"She'll be back any minute, and I'm going her way, boys. Yes, and if I do there's a chance that I may win her some day and be able to take her to my old home and my father and mother, who haven't heard of me for years. They didn't seem quite to understand me when I was a lad, boys, nor I them, but I can see now that they meant all right by me. I've learned it all from this girl, though she's almost a complete stranger to me."

Valentine's voice began to waver, and he inclined his face to one side to hide the evidences of the emotion that threatened to overwhelm him. To Red Flanagan and Bill Avery the situation was a trying one, desperate indeed. One of them was all too young and inexperienced to execute alone the delicate, sure, nerve racking "inside" job of a safe looting sortie, the other was too old and feeble for anything but a berth as "outside" man, to detect approaching danger and give due warning thereof. They absolutely required the partnership of Jimmy Valentine.

Yet here was Valentine, as Avery described him in a reproachful whisper to Red: "Here he is, crazy stuck on a skirt, an' him th' only man in

HE WRESTED THE WEAPON FROM AVERY.

America as can open a twelve bolt safe by th' sense o' touch. Ain't it th' limit fer a geni-oo like him to waste his talents an' go on the square?"

Valentine faced his friends of the past.

"When did you see her—the girl?" queried Red Flanagan of him.

"Right here today," Jimmy Valentine's face brightened as he thought of her. "Met her father too. She said she would be back."

"And you think she'll come?" sneered Red. "Why, we been here a half hour, and it's a cinch Doyle has reached her father."

Valentine gave a sudden start. Red inwardly rejoiced as he saw that his shot had taken effect.

"Doyle!" gasped the released convict. "I wonder if he—"

"You can bet on it," put in Avery.

"A little sympathy, Jimmy, that's

AVOID HARSH DRUGS

Many Cathartics Tend to Cause Injury to the Bowels.

If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is so strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called Rexall Orderlies. These are prompt, soothing and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery. Their principal ingredient is odorless, tasteless and colorless. Combined with other well known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever. They do not gripe, purge nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons and aged people as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in two size packages, 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain them at our store,—The Rexall Store, Thos. W. Lytle.

to cheer you on the right path. Ain't you on?"

"Don't say that, Red. Don't you say that."

"It's a cinch Doyle has queered the play," went on Avery.

Valentine moved angrily at the speaker.

"It wasn't a play, Avery. I'll strangle you if you speak that way again."

Red was again scornful and said:

"Oh, rot! They're playing you, and you don't see it. And for being spoken nice to you're going to blow the softest graft a man ever had."

"I know what I'm doing," insisted Valentine, who began walking nervously up and down the floor.

"Yes, you do. If you had a chance—I'd stick, and you know it, don't you?"

"I don't know anything about it."

Avery, catching a significant glance from Red, continued the shrewd attempt to cause Valentine to lose faith in Rose Lane.

"Did the girl wear pink roses," he said excitedly, "and was the guy with her gray haired and carried a gold headed cane?"

"Yes."

"When you was talking to Doyle here and we was planted there—he indicated the portieres—I saw them pass here going toward the depot."

Valentine stopped short in his nervous pacing. He glared in astonishment at the old thief, who stood at one side of the room gripping the rim of a slouch hat, one that could be pulled down over the eyes, to partially conceal the face when the wearer was in a public place.

"They went to the station," Valentine gasped. "Then—they—are—not—coming—to—"

Red saw the impression Avery's words had made on his former pal. He saw that possibly very little would now be needed to cause No. 1289 to return to the old ways with the old friends.

"Surest thing you know, Jimmy," he announced. "I saw them too. She had on a shimmering dress with pink flowers in her bonnet, and she looked perfectly happy, too, like she was glad to get away from this town."

CHAPTER IX.

SILENCE ensued. Valentine was, plainly suffering from the blow. Then an expression of confidence came into Valentine's face. He seated himself on a sofa at the left of the room.

"She'll be back," he said. "You fellows are just like Izzy Snadden. He always said women didn't amount to much. Guess that was because one of the barmaids at the Cheshire Cheese in London peached on him to the Scotland Yard bulls, and he had to make a quick getaway hidden under the coal in a freight steamer. But this girl is different from the kind of women you and I have known, boys. She saw there was something good in me, even when I wore the stripes, and she took me out of the reach of Warden Handler and 'solitaire'—'solitaire,' boys. Does that mean anything to you?" Valentine's voice rose higher.

"Yes, and she's going to do one thing more for me. She's coming back to help me start on the square."

Red stepped close to Valentine, gripped his arm and hissed determinedly into his ears: "You know she won't. You don't think a straight girl would stand for a crook like you, do you—you, with the coppers always after you on account of some of the old stuff we did? Don't kid yourself, Jimmy. It's no go."

"If any other crook had dreamed a dream like that, what a laugh it would be, but now you go, Red—you and Avery."

Red rose quickly.

"What do you mean?" suspiciously. The light of resolution shone in Valentine's eyes.

"I've quit," he said.

"What!" snapped Red and Avery together.

"I've quit."

"What about Doyle?" put in Avery. "He's heavy on your mind, ain't he, Avery? I can beat Doyle."

"You ain't going to lose that coin I've got staked out for an hour's work?" wailed Red. "Seven thousand if there's a dime!"

"Yes, I'll lose that."

"And a trip abroad to brace you up—a month in Paris?"

"Yes, I lose that too."

Red went on excitedly, bending tensely toward Valentine:

"But you won't lose the old thrill of going into a bank just before dawn.

much. Guess that was because one of the barmaids at the Cheshire Cheese in London peached on him to the Scotland Yard bulls, and he had to make a quick getaway hidden under the coal in a freight steamer. But this girl is different from the kind of women you and I have known, boys. She saw there was something good in me, even when I wore the stripes, and she took me out of the reach of Warden Handler and 'solitaire'—'solitaire,' boys. Does that mean anything to you?" Valentine's voice rose higher.

"Yes, and she's going to do one thing more for me. She's coming back to help me start on the square."

Red stepped close to Valentine, gripped his arm and hissed determinedly into his ears: "You know she won't. You don't think a straight girl would stand for a crook like you, do you—you, with the coppers always after you on account of some of the old stuff we did? Don't kid yourself, Jimmy. It's no go."

"If any other crook had dreamed a dream like that, what a laugh it would be, but now you go, Red—you and Avery."

Red rose quickly.

"What do you mean?" suspiciously. The light of resolution shone in Valentine's eyes.

"I've quit," he said.

"What!" snapped Red and Avery together.

"I've quit."

"What about Doyle?" put in Avery. "He's heavy on your mind, ain't he, Avery? I can beat Doyle."

"You ain't going to lose that coin I've got staked out for an hour's work?" wailed Red. "Seven thousand if there's a dime!"

"Yes, I'll lose that."

"And a trip abroad to brace you up—a month in Paris?"

"Yes, I lose that too."

Red went on excitedly, bending tensely toward Valentine:

"But you won't lose the old thrill of going into a bank just before dawn.

much. Guess that was because one of the barmaids at the Cheshire Cheese in London peached on him to the Scotland Yard bulls, and he had to make a quick getaway hidden under the coal in a freight steamer. But this girl is different from the kind of women you and I have known, boys. She saw there was something good in me, even when I wore the stripes, and she took me out of the reach of Warden Handler and 'solitaire'—'solitaire,' boys. Does that mean anything to you?" Valentine's voice rose higher.

"Yes, and she's going to do one thing more for me. She's coming back to help me start on the square."

Red stepped close to Valentine, gripped his arm and hissed determinedly into his ears: "You know she won't. You don't think a straight girl would stand for a crook like you, do you—you, with the coppers always after you on account of some of the old stuff we did? Don't kid yourself, Jimmy. It's no go."

"If any other crook had dreamed a dream like that, what a laugh it would be, but now you go, Red—you and Avery."

Red rose quickly.

"What do you mean?" suspiciously. The light of resolution shone in Valentine's eyes.

"I've quit," he said.

"What!" snapped Red and Avery together.

"I've quit."

"What about Doyle?" put in Avery. "He's heavy on your mind, ain't he, Avery? I can beat Doyle."

"You ain't going to lose that coin I've got staked out for an hour's work?" wailed Red. "Seven thousand if there's a dime!"

"Yes, I'll lose that."

"And a trip abroad to brace you up—a month in Paris?"

"Yes, I lose that too."

Red went on excitedly, bending tensely toward Valentine:

"But you won't lose the old thrill of going into a bank just before dawn.

much. Guess that was because one of the barmaids at the Cheshire Cheese in London peached on him to the Scotland Yard bulls, and he had to make a quick getaway hidden under the coal in a freight steamer. But this girl is different from the kind of women you and I have known, boys. She saw there was something good in me, even when I wore the stripes, and she took me out of the reach of Warden Handler and 'solitaire'—'solitaire,' boys. Does that mean anything to you?" Valentine's voice rose higher.

"Yes, and she's going to do one thing more for me. She's coming back to help me start on the square."

Red stepped close to Valentine, gripped his arm and hissed determinedly into his ears: "You know she won't. You don't think a straight girl would stand for a crook like you, do you—you, with the coppers always after you on account of some of the old stuff we did? Don't kid yourself, Jimmy. It's no go."

"If any other crook had dreamed a dream like that, what a laugh it would be, but now you go, Red—you and Avery."

Red rose quickly.

"What do you mean?" suspiciously. The light of resolution shone in Valentine's eyes.

"I've quit," he said.

"What!" snapped Red and Avery together.

"I've quit."

"What about Doyle?" put in Avery. "He's heavy on your mind, ain't he, Avery? I can beat Doyle."

"You ain't going to lose that coin I've got staked out for an hour's work?" wailed Red. "Seven thousand if there's a dime!"

"Yes, I'll lose that."

"And a trip abroad to brace you up—a month in Paris?"

"Yes, I lose that too."

Red went on excitedly, bending tensely toward Valentine:

"But you won't lose the old thrill of going into a bank just before dawn.

much. Guess that was because one of the barmaids at the Cheshire Cheese in London peached on him to the Scotland Yard bulls, and he had to make a quick getaway hidden under the coal in a freight steamer. But this girl is different from the kind of women you and I have known, boys. She saw there was something good in me, even when I wore the stripes, and she took me out of the reach of Warden Handler and 'solitaire'—'solitaire,' boys. Does that mean anything to you?" Valentine's voice rose higher.

"Yes, and she's going to do one thing more for me. She's coming back to help me start on the square."

Red stepped close to Valentine, gripped his arm and hissed determinedly into his ears: "You know she won't. You don't think a straight girl would stand for a crook like you, do you—you, with the coppers always after you on account of some of the old stuff we did? Don't kid yourself, Jimmy. It's no go."

"If any other crook had dreamed a dream like that, what a laugh it would be, but now you go, Red—you and Avery."

Red rose quickly.

"What do you mean?" suspiciously. The light of resolution shone in Valentine's eyes.

"I've quit," he said.

"What!" snapped Red and Avery together.

"I've quit."

"What about Doyle?" put in Avery. "He's heavy on your mind, ain't he, Avery? I can beat Doyle."

"You ain't going to lose that coin I've got staked out for an hour's work?" wailed Red. "Seven thousand if there's a dime!"

"Yes, I'll lose that."

"And a trip abroad to brace you up—a month in Paris?"

"Yes, I lose that too."

Red went on excitedly, bending tensely toward Valentine:

"But you won't lose the old thrill of going into a bank just before dawn.

much. Guess that was because one of the barmaids at the Cheshire Cheese in London peached on him to the Scotland Yard bulls, and he had to make a quick getaway hidden under the coal in a freight steamer. But this girl is different from the kind of women you and I have known, boys. She saw there was something good in me, even when I wore the stripes, and she took me out of the reach of Warden Handler and 'solitaire'—'solitaire,' boys. Does that mean anything to you?" Valentine's voice rose higher.

"Yes, and she's going to do one thing more for me. She's coming back to help me start on the square."

Red stepped close to Valentine, gripped his arm and hissed determinedly into his ears: "You know she won't. You don't think a straight girl would stand for a crook like you, do you—you, with the coppers always after you on account of some of the old stuff we did? Don't kid yourself, Jimmy. It's no go."

"If any other crook had dreamed a dream like that, what a laugh it would be, but now you go, Red—you and Avery."

Red rose quickly.

"What do you mean?" suspiciously. The light of resolution shone in Valentine's eyes.

"I've quit," he said.

"What!" snapped Red and Avery together.

"I've quit."

"What about Doyle?" put in Avery. "He's heavy on your mind, ain't he, Avery? I can beat Doyle."

"You ain't going to lose that coin I've got staked out for an hour's work?" wailed Red. "Seven thousand if there's a dime!"

"Yes, I'll lose that."

"And a trip abroad to brace you up—a month in Paris?"

"Yes, I lose that too."

Red went on excitedly, bending tensely toward Valentine:

"But you won't lose the old thrill of going into a bank just before dawn.

much. Guess that was because one of the barmaids at the Cheshire Cheese in London peached on him to the Scotland Yard bulls, and he had to make a quick getaway hidden under the coal in a freight steamer. But this girl is different from the kind of women you and I have known, boys. She saw there was something good in me, even when I wore the stripes, and she took me out of the reach of Warden Handler and 'solitaire'—'solitaire,' boys. Does that mean anything to you?" Valentine's voice rose higher.

"Yes, and she's going to do one thing more for me. She's coming back to help me start on the square."

Red.

"No; I'm strong again."

"You mean that's from the girl?"

"She is coming back, Red, and there's nothing on this earth or in hell that can make me go wrong. You said a minute ago that if you thought I had a chance you'd stick."

"I said it."

"Then I hold you to that."

"Good God!" exclaimed Avery. "You're not goin' to turn square, too, Red?"

"I'm going with Jimmy. If I'd do a bit for him I got to go if he asks it."

"What am I goin' to do?" asked Avery plaintively.

Valentine drew close to him.

"I've got you a job, Bill, a good one," he announced.

"Me a job! Where?"

Valentine read from a note Mrs. Moore had left with him.

"Listen," he said. "This will introduce the man you promised the position as watchman of one of your grain elevators. The wages at $2.50 a day are satisfactory to him."

Intense disgust spread over Bill Avery's face.

"Two-fifty a day," he sneered. "A man can't live on that."

Valentine laughed.

"It costs 31 cents a day to keep a man in Sing Sing," he reminded the thief.

"I don't want a job," snarled Avery. "Only the suckers work for a living."

"Yes, you do want one," returned Valentine, "and this is just your kind. Avery. And let me tell you something that you think I don

CHICHESTER'S PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND.
Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold Metallic Boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Ask for CHICHESTER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS, for 45 years known as Best, Safest, Always Reliable.
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists.

TO-NIGHT
Cinecarets
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP. All Druggists.
10c. 25c. 50c.

Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists.

EYE, EAR, NOSE and THROAT GLASSES FURNISHED
KRYPTOK
DR. F. G. HACKLEMAN

Office 1408—Phone—Res. 1162
DR. L. C. KIGIN
Veterinarian
Office Johnson's Drug Store
Rushville, Indiana.

A. F. POWELL
Auctioneer
Satisfaction Guaranteed. See me before making your date.
Address, Rushville, Route 7.

J. W. GARTIN
LIVE STOCK AND GENERAL Auctioneer
Your patronage solicited. Terms reasonable, satisfaction guaranteed.
Phone 3330 Rushville, Ind.
Residence "Ideal Stock Farm," two and a quarter miles north-east of city.

Foley Kidney Pills
TONIC IN ACTION - QUICK IN RESULTS
Give prompt relief from BACKACHE, KIDNEY and BLADDER TROUBLE, RHEUMATISM, CONGESTION of the KIDNEYS, INFLAMMATION of the BLADDER and all annoying URINARY IRREGULARITIES. A positive boon to MIDDLE AGED and ERLY PEOPLE and for WOMEN.

Ask for samples.
F. B. JOHNSON & COMPANY.
DR. J. B. KINSINGER,
Osteopathic Physician.
Office in Kramer Building, Rushville, Ind. Outside calls answered and treatment given in the home.
Office hours—8:30 to 11:30 a. m.; 1:30 to 4:30 p. m.
Phones—Office, 1587; residence, 1281.
Consultation at office free.

I. & C. TRACTION COMPANY
In Effect April 1, 1910.
PASSENGER SERVICE.
Trains leave Rushville
West Bound. East Bound.
4:20 a. m. 6:20 a. m.
5:20 a. m. 7:20 a. m.
6:07 a. m. 8:42 a. m.
7:09 a. m. 9:06 a. m.
8:07 a. m. 10:42 a. m.
9:04 a. m. 11:20 a. m.
10:07 a. m. 12:42 p. m.
11:09 a. m. 1:20 p. m.
12:07 p. m. 2:42 p. m.
1:09 p. m. 3:20 p. m.
2:07 p. m. 4:42 p. m.
3:09 p. m. 5:22 p. m.
4:07 p. m. 6:42 p. m.
5:04 p. m. 7:20 p. m.
6:07 p. m. 7:54 p. m.
7:09 p. m. 9:20 p. m.
8:09 p. m. 10:27 p. m.
9:11 p. m. 12:51 a. m.
* Limited. † Connersville Dispatch.
‡ Makes local stops between Rushville and Indianapolis.
§ Cars arriving at Rushville from the east at 7:57, 9:31 and 11:31 p. m. stop at Rushville.
PHONES:
Ticket Office 1407. Freight Office 1690.
Express Service—For Delivery at Station, 15 Trains Each Way.
FREIGHT SERVICE.
West Bound.....7:20 a. m. 5:22 p. m.
East Bound.....4:20 a. m. 2:20 p. m.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days.
PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.
Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists

BATTLE WITH ANARCHISTS

New York Police Had a Bad Half Hour.

CAPTURED THE "REDS" FLAG

Turbulent Crowd of More Than a Thousand Had Gathered in Front of the Japanese Consulate to Protest Against Recent Execution of Japanese Anarchists When the Police Took a Hand.

New York, Jan. 30.—In a battle with police more than 1,000 anarchists and sympathizers were put to rout last night at Broadway and Leonard street. The anarchists, wild with enthusiasm, were at a turbulent mass meeting and were having their own way in the Japanese consulate neighborhood at 3 Wall street, protesting against the hanging in Japan of Dr. Denjairo Koutko, his wife and ten students.

The fight reached its climax when, after Police Captain Hodgins and the reserves of two stations had charged, ten policemen wrestled with the mob for possession of the red flag which had waved at the head of the procession. A score of men and women were felled with clubs and the butts of revolvers before the policemen captured the flag and arrested five of the marchers.

The singing of the Marseillaise by 400 women who marched in the rear of the anarchists sounded above the shouts of the mob, while police whistles echoed distress signals from Broadway to Greenwich street on the west and the Bowery on the east. More policemen arrived. They formed flying wedge, which sent the mob in flight into the side streets.

HAD MANY VISITORS

Twenty-five Thousand Tramped Past Margaret Shipley's Bed Sunday.

Pittsburg, Jan. 30.—The eight-day fast of Margaret Shipley, the McKeesport blind girl, begun a week ago Sunday to restore her sight, will end tonight. The watchers told visitors last evening that her soul, which had left her body early in the morning and had been absent in heaven all day, returned to her body last night. Shortly afterward the girl raised her hands and said: "I will be the savior of the gentiles." It was the only time she spoke all day. Margaret has promised that after her soul takes its trip to heaven today and returns to her body, she will wake with her sight at 6 o'clock this evening, although she was born blind.

Twenty-five thousand people visited the Halderman home, where the girl is staying, yesterday. Many women walked three and four miles in the rain. The roads were a sea of mud, and the visitors tracked great clods into the house with them as they filed past the door of the room in which she lay.

A BOY AND A GUN

Dangerous Combination Causes Fatal Wounding of a Woman.

Madison, Ind., Jan. 30.—Allis Davis, aged twelve, one of several boys starting on a hunting trip out of Deputy, this county, pointed a double-barreled shotgun at Mrs. John Troutman, who was standing in the yard of her home, and remarked: "If I were going to shoot a woman I'd do it this way." The gun was discharged and Mrs. Troutman was probably fatally wounded.

Red Ink Recommended.

Kokomo, Ind., Jan. 30.—Resolutions adopted by the Socialist state convention here, and which are to be forwarded to President Taft, Attorney General Wickersham and Governor Marshall of Indiana, direct the Socialists of Indiana to write all their letters in red ink during the time Fred D. Warren, editor of the Appeal to Reason, is behind prison bars. War is condemned in other resolutions adopted, as is the organization of "boy scouts" and the execution by the Japanese government of Socialists under the name of anarchists.

Schenk Wants Divorce.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 30.—Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenk, wife of John O. Schenk, whom she was charged with attempting to poison, was released on her own recognizance by Judge Jordan in the criminal court, the bail being left at $10,000. A few minutes previously she was served with papers in a divorce action filed by her husband.

Sheriff Seeks Alleged Slayer.

Kewanee, Ill., Jan. 30.—Search is being made here by Coroner Rose of Rock Island county for Joseph Polimots of this city, who is suspected of the murder at Rock Island of Paul Matagasic, whose body was found in a slough. Polimots has disappeared.

Exonerated by Coroner.

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 30.—Robert E. Moss, mate on the John L. Lowrey, shot and killed George Proctor, a roustabout, when the latter advanced on him with an open knife. The coroner's jury exonerated Moss.

OSCAR HAMMERSTEIN

Famous Impresario Is the Defendant in Divorce Suit.

New York, Jan. 30.—Mrs. Malvina Hammerstein has begun proceedings in the supreme court at Nyack for an absolute divorce from Oscar Hammerstein. The divorce is asked on statutory grounds.

NEIGHBORS AVENGED VIOLATION OF CHILD

Atrocious Crime In Louisiana Summarily Punished.

New Orleans, Jan. 30.—Swinging from a tree in the piney woods of St. Tammany parish is the body of a negro riddled with bullets. Particularly atrocious was the crime for which the negro paid illegal but prompt penalty.

One of the many homeless little negro boys to be found in every village in the south, he was taken into the home of Henry Miller, a prominent sawmill man, and for the errands he was able to do, was given food and lodgings. When he grew to young manhood, he remained with the family, and one of his duties was to help amuse the baby girl. Thus trusted, "Wash" was allowed to come and go at will, and no one ever thought of fearing him. Saturday morning Mr. Miller went to his sawmill and Mrs. Miller went to visit neighbors, leaving the little girl, now eight years old, in charge of the negro. When Mrs. Miller returned "Wash," who had no other name save "Miller's nigger," was gone and the little girl was in physical agony.

News of the outrage spread like wild fire. "Wash" was found. Deputy sheriffs came from Covington and started to take the negro to jail. In the woods they were forced to surrender their prisoner to the crowd. The little girl is in a serious condition.

FOLLOW DAD'S LEAD

Son of Champion Corn Grower Is Now Champion Himself.

Columbus, O., Jan. 30.—Indiana still retains its lead as the state that raises the best corn in the world, according to the National Corn Exposition judges, who passed on the best samples of corn previous to the opening of the exposition today.

Roy D. Clore, nineteen years old, of Franklin, Ind., is the winner of the championship trophy for ten-year showing, valued at $1,000, donated by the Indiana Corn Growers' association. L. B. Clore, his father, won the championship prize at the exposition in 1907 and again in 1908. In 1909 he was barred from competition. His son won with a showing of white corn.

FIST BLOW FATAL

Third Case of the Kind in Evansville in Three Months.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 30.—August W. Meissner, twenty-three years old, who surrendered himself to the police following the death of Charles Kelly, whom he struck in a street fight, is held on a slated charge of manslaughter until Prosecuting Attorney Lühring decides whether the evidence against him is sufficient to furnish a conviction for homicide. This is the third death here attributed to fistie blows within three months.

Wants Steel Trust Investigated

Washington, Jan. 30.—A document has been presented to the committee on rules by Representative Augustus O. Stanley of Kentucky which is an argument in favor of his resolution for a house committee of nine to investigate the United States Steel company for the purpose of determining whether it is a trust within the meaning of the Sherman law.

Break Up a Seance.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 30.—When six young men, each armed with a flashlight, turned their lights on at an agreed time at a Spiritualist seance being conducted by a medium in the southern part of the town, trumpets were broken, blows were struck and there was general confusion.

IS EXPECTED TO PROMOTE PEACE

Chihuahua's Governor Has Finally Resigned.

HE HAD LONG BEEN UNPOPULAR

With Terrazas Out and a Man With a Good Record For Keeping Order Installed in His Place, It is Expected That the Rebellion in That State Will Be Subdued in Short Order and Good Government Restored.

City of Mexico, Jan. 30.—At a special session of the legislature of the state of Chihuahua, the resignation of Alberto Terrazas, governor of the state, and son-in-law of Foreign Minister Enrico Creel, was accepted. Miguel Ahumada, at present governor of Jalisco state, was appointed in his place. It is understood that Senor Creel advised the change, which also meets the approval of the Terrazas family.

Ahumada has been governor of Jalisco for years. He has a good record for keeping order. It is expected that his co-operation with the federal authorities will be of help in subduing the rebellion in Chihuahua quickly. His term in the state of Jalisco is about to expire.

Gueto Gallardo, who was recently elected to the governorship of Jalisco, is expected to take up the reins of government there immediately. The legislature of Chihuahua is able to appoint a provisional governor for the reason that Senor Creel is the really elected governor of the state, but at present is on leave of absence, filling the position of minister of foreign relations. His term does not expire for some time.

MURDERED IN HOTEL

Body of Woman Found in a Room Taken by "John Smith."

New York, Jan. 30.—The body of a woman was found last night in a room on the second floor of the Bryant hotel at Forty-fourth street and Sixth avenue. There were blue marks on her neck. A handkerchief had been crowded into her mouth and well back into her throat. Coroner Hellenstein said it looked to him like murder by strangulation.

A chambermaid found the body lying half on the bed. The disarrangement of the clothing seemed to indicate a struggle. It was that of a woman about thirty-three years old, five feet two inches in height and weighing 140 pounds. Her hair was brown, her complexion light and her eyes blue. On the woman's left hand were a plain gold ring and a gold ring with a blue stone. A large handbag with a coin purse inside lay near by.

The hotel people said that the woman came to the hotel at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning with a man who registered for both as "John Smith and wife, Montclair, N. J." The man left the hotel at 6:45 o'clock last night, almost two hours before the body of the woman was found.

The man is described as thirty-five years old, five feet eight inches in height. He wore a light overcoat and a black soft hat, and carried a small suitcase.

Lafollette Opens Headquarters.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 30.—What is believed to be the beginning of a determined effort on the part of Senator Robert M. Lafollette of Wisconsin to land the Republican nomination for president, was the opening in this city of Lafollette's headquarters in charge of C. M. Christensen, who will have charge of Minnesota and the Dakotas and will employ a staff of field men ostensibly to garner news and ideas for Lafollette's weekly, but the real purpose, it is believed will be the advancement of Lafollette stock in this section of the northwest.

No Right to the Name.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 30.—Chancellor Allison decided here against the negro Knights of Pythias, holding that they have no right to the name, regalia, badges, etc. This case will be appealed to the supreme court.

New Service For Women.

Barcelona, Jan. 30.—Next week there will enter the police service one hundred women, whose principal mission will be to aid in stamping out anarchy in this city.

WEATHER EVERYWHERE

Observations of United States weather bureaus taken at 8 p. m. yesterday follow:
	Temp.	Weather
New York.....	40	Rain
Albany.....	36	Rain
Atlantic City..	44	Cloudy
Boston.....	42	Rain
Buffalo.....	42	Rain
Chicago.....	42	Clear
Indianapolis...	55	Clear
St. Louis.....	60	Clear
New Orleans...	68	Clear
Washington...	40	Rain
Philadelphia...	42	Cloudy

Fair and much colder; Tuesday fair.

Want Ad Department

Advertisements under this head are charged for at the rate of one-third cent per word for each insertion. The semi-weekly Ad will be placed in the Indianapolis Star and Daily Republican at the combined rate of one cent per word. Found articles of small value will be advertised free of charge.

FOR SALE—Evaporator and buck-etc. Address Ed. Holman, R. R. 1, 27716.

LOST—Bill book containing receipts and valuable papers all on Riverside, Calif. Finder please return to Bliss & Cowing or Jabez Smith, court house. Liberal reward. 2721f

FOR SALE—Harvard Piano at a bargain. Also peanut-popcorn machine. Leaving town; do not want to move them. Address Frank Gipson, Arlington, Ind. 27716

WANTED—Local manager Reliance Life Insurance Company. Attractive contract. Call at Windsor Hotel evenings, seven to eight. 27713

OLD PAPERS—Nice clean newspapers—5 cents a large bundle at The Daily Republican office. tf

FOR SALE—Good second-hand sewing machines; 5 drawer, drop head machines, $12.00. F. W. Lowe. Phone 1455 or 1649. 26916

FOR SALE—Percheron Stallion Sadoc 54900. Address Glenwood Percheron Horse Co., Glenwood, Indiana. 266112

FOR SALE—Some good pure bred sows. C. P. Brown, R. R. 5, Rushville. 27116

FOR SALE—A house to be moved off the premises. Large enough to make two small houses. Inquire 99c store. 2591f

FOR SALE—20 pure bred Fishel Strain White Wyandottes; 20 pure bred Buff Orpingtons, and a few Kellerstraus Crystal White Orpington Cockerels. Also 2 Peteluma Incubators and some Philo System coops. Call or write James Bennett, 913 North Main St. 2711f

FOR SALE—Ready-made hog houses, standard size; cheaper than you can build them. Pinnell & Tompkins Lumber Co. Phone 1031. 2351f

FOR SALE—Pure bred S. C. Buff Orpington Cockerels. C. B. Kenner, Rushville, Ind, R. R. 12. 254126

FOR SALE—thrashing outfit, all or half interest, or will lease same to a good man. O. P. Morris, 215 Lee St., Connersville, Ind. 27016

WANTED—To make loans from $5.00 to $500.00 on live stock, wagons, pianos, household goods, or any other chattel security. Your business invited. Courteous treatment. Confidential. Home Loan Co., rear offices over Wolcott's drug store, Rushville, Ind. Guy Abercrombie, Manager. Telephone 1643. 2321f

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS.

FOR SALE OR TRADE.

If you want to Sell or Trade anything, a want ad in this paper and 99 others in Indiana, Illinois and Ohio will find your party. It will only cost you $2.50 per line of 6 words, write us for list of papers. Austill Advertising Syndicate, Elwood, Indiana.

AGENTS—to handle our $1,000 Accident policy; pays $1,000 death benefit and $5.00 weekly benefit for $1.00 yearly. Easy seller; big commissions; 12,000 claims paid last year. Address North American Accident Insurance Company, Newark, N. J. 27314

OLD PAPERS—Nice clean newspapers—5 cents a large bundle at The Daily Republican office. tf

FOR RENT—Dwelling house. No. 114 North Perkins St. A. B. Flinn. 27516

FOR SALE—4 good Poland-China male pigs. John F. Boyd. 27116

BUSINESS CHANCE—Invest 25c. and we will relieve you of your cold and save you further trouble which may follow. Raymond Anti-Grip Tablets at Hargrove & Mullin. 265118

FOR SALE—A black mare, five years old, good size, well bred, gentle, broke to any harness. Inquire of Roy Horrold at Republican office.

FOR RENT—house, 5 room, on Spencer St.; half acre of ground. Dr. Lewis. 2731f

FOUND—Sure, easy and safe way to remove corns or bunions. Raymond Corn Remedy, a liquid. It's green. 15 cents. No plasters or bandages necessary. Hargrove & Mullin. 265118

FOR SALE—White Plymouth Rock cockrels and pullets, Fischel strain, $1.00 each. Eggs $1.00 per 15. Indian Runner duck eggs, after Feb. 1, $1.00 per 13; $3.00 per 50. $5.00 per 100. Orders booked now. M. C. Dawson, Rushville, Ind. Phone 1218. Tile Factory. 265126

AUTO FOR SALE—A good single cylinder Cadillac runabout. This machine is in first class condition; 4 good tires and 2 extras. Price $250. A. P. Wagoner at Poe's Jewelry Store. 2611f

WANTED—Canvassing Agents at once for the sale of "Roosevelt Hunting Big Game in the Wilds of Africa;" also for "Fighting the Traffic in Young Girls." Price only $1.50 each. 50 per cent commission. Either outfit sent post-paid for 15 cents, or both outfits for 25 cents. Big sellers. Fine for winter work. Address A. B. Kuhlman Company, 154 Lake street, Chicago, Ill. 266110

INVESTMENT—For 25c the most stubborn case of indigestion or stomach trouble can be conquered with Raymond Dispepsia Tablets. Hargrove & Mullin, druggists. 6518

Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will offer at public sale at his residence on the McIlvaine-Canady farm 4 1/2 miles south of Lewisville and 1 1/2 miles northeast of Raleigh, COMMENCING AT 9:30 A. M. on Thursday, February 9, 1911

14 HORSES: Registered Belgian Stallion, coming 6 years old, weighing 1800, good breeder and sure foal getter; Belgian Mare 7 years old weighing 1800, good work and brood mare; 14 year old shire Mare in foal; 16 year old bay general purpose Mare in foal; 9 year old bay shire Mare in foal; 4 year old bay Percheron Gelding, sound and a good worker; extra good Belgian Filly coming 3 years old, has been worked a few times; bay draft gelding coming 3 years old, good sound one, 11 year old sorrel Gelding, blind but a good worker; Belgian Gelding, coming 2 years old; Belgian weanling Horse Colts. Gray Percheron Filly, coming 3 years old.

21 Cattle: 2 Shorthorn cows both giving milk, 5 long-yearling steers, 10 long-yearling heifers, 4 heifers coming 1 year old.

2 Male Hogs: 1 registered Duroc, 1 Poland China, eligible to register. Corn in crib, Timothy and Clover Hay in Mow.

Implement: 2-horse wagon, break cart good as new, flat wagon bed all complete, steel hay rake, Deering self rake, 2-row corn plow, 2 corn planters, 2-horse wheat drill, gang breaking plow, stock cutter, disc harrow, spring tooth harrow, spike-tooth harrow, carriage pole, double set of driving harness, 6 sets work harness, 50 foot loading chain, log bolsters and skids, fan mill and many other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS OF SALE: All sums under $10 cash, and over a credit till Dec. 25, 1911, will be given, purchaser giving note with approved security. No property to be removed until settled for. A discount of 5 per cent. for cash on all sums over $10.00.

Free Lunch at Noon
Vanderbeck & Son, Auctioneers
J. L. Beard, Clerk

Carpet Department

THIRD FLOOR

Our entire third floor, 40x165 ft. is given up to Carpets, Rugs, Lineoleums, Matting and Window Shades. Here you have the finest daylight obtainable in which to make your selections, and the greatest collection of floor coverings ever assembled in Rush County.

200 Room Rugs, sizes 8-3 x 10-6, 9 x 12, 10-6 x 13-6, 11-3 x 12, 12x15 in Burma, Tapestry, Axminster, Body Brussels, Wilton New Designs in Ingrain Carpets just received at 25c, 38c, 45c, 50c, 60c, 70c and up.

Tapestry, Axminster and Velvet Carpets carried in stock ready to deliver.

SPECIAL
FOR THIS WEEK ONLY
9x12 Axminster Rugs
$15.98

Choice line of Lineoleums in 8x4, 10x4, 12x4, 14x4 and 16x4 widths.

Fibre Matting in brown, green, blue and red figures make a desirable cheap floor covering.

Fancy and plain white Matting at 12½c, 15c, 20c, 25c and up. Extra Super All Wool Filled Cotton Chain Carpet, 47c.

The New Store

The Mauzy Co.

The New Store

FIND "JOKER" IN NEW LIQUOR LAW

Continued from page one.

tions of townships outside of cities, but a question will be raised by attorneys of the applicants for liquor license as to the right of county commissioners to assume jurisdiction over elections where precinct lines have been fixed by city councils instead of boards of county commissioners.

If this is done, it is pointed out, territory in a township outside of a city, which laps over the city in its precinct boundaries will require precinct re-apportionment before legal elections of voters residing in that portion of the township outside the city limits can be held.

Marion extends into three townships. It is divided into city precincts, but the county precincts in the three townships contain portions of the city. The liquor men assert that the use of the city as a unit in a local option election will make it impossible to hold such elections in the county precincts in which city voters ordinarily cast their ballots, as they then will be divided.

Under the law it is said the county commissioners would not be permitted to redistrict the townships for election purposes until the June session, and even then it is doubtful if they could make a legal apportionment recognizing the city precincts.

If the commissioners in any county it is asserted, are not so inclined, they can prevent permanently a local option election by refusing to re-apportion the county on the basis required by the Proctor bill. The points raised by these complications will, the liquor men say, keep the courts busy many months, and meanwhile, the State will become automatically "wet" and can not be made "dry" except by remonstrances.

Dale Chattel Loan Co.

$1.00 to $500.00

On anything attachable. Horses, Mules, Cattle, Pianos, Furniture of any description. Easy payments by the day, week month or year. Telephone 1499. South Room Commercial Block Upstairs. Open Saturday Evenings Until 9 o'clock

WANT ADS.

Too Late for Regular Position.

WANTED—to buy second-hand cook stove that will burn wood or coal. Address 402 West First St. 27716

WE buy our Rubber Goods direct from the manufacturer, hence the high standard of quality. We carry Crutches Trusses, and sick room supplies. Phone 1038. We do the rest.

LYTTLES DRUG STORE

THE REXALL STORE

THE REXALL STORE

Big Public Sale

—OF—

Live Stock

AT DAVIS BROS. SALE PAVILLION, RUSHVILLE, IND., ON Saturday, February 11, 1911

12:00 O'CLOCK, SHARP

The undersigned will offer at above time and place the following property:

10 HEAD OF HORSES 10

Three black Geldings—four, five and six years old, weighing 1600 to 1700 pounds. One black pair of coming three-year-old Fillies—half sisters, weight about 1250, with plenty of quality.—Don't overlook this pair. One gray Mare in foal, seven years old, weight 1500, with good style and action. One bay three-year-old Filly, weight 1350, well broke and an exceptionally good worker.

These are all by Percheron Sires, out of grade Percheron Mares.

One bay Road Horse by Baron Posey, 7 years old. Has trotted miles faster than 2:40. One bay Road Mare 5 years old, by Western Horseman, Dam by Wm. V., 2nd Dam by Blue Bull 75, in foal to Black Line, by Moco. Can show lots of step at either the trot or the pace. One chestnut sorrel Mare with flaxen main and tail, coming four years old by George W. Lederer, broken to harness and will make a classy road mare.

30 MILK COWS 30

This is a rare opportunity to buy a good cow, for such an excellent lot is seldom offered at public sale. Each individual was carefully selected as to milking qualities and individuality; all good ages and the best of handlers. Listen! These Cows have recently been given the Tuberculin test and every animal found to be in perfect condition. When buying a cow it is of utmost importance to know that you are getting one that is healthful. These will all be fresh or near fresh at time of sale.

2 POLLED SHORTHORN BULLS 2

Eligible to Register. Sire weighed 2000 pounds, under three years old. One Roan, 18 months old, and good enough for a Herd Head. One Red, eleven-months-old, a good calf, and large enough for service. Watch these calves if you are looking for a bargain.

50 BROOD SOWS, PURE BRED DUROCS 50

In making this offering I feel sure they will merit the approval of everyone who admires a good hog, and leave it with the buyer to say what they are worth. These are my own breeding due to February and March farrow, mated to hogs with plenty of size and finish and are in just the proper condition to raise large strong litters.

TERMS: A credit of six months without interest will be given on bankable notes on sums of $25 or over. Under $25, cash. Three per cent. per annum off for cash.

Come before noon to inspect stock and make your selections. Then get your buying harness on early for we are going to begin the sale promptly at 12 o'clock and sell quick and fast. EVERYBODY COME.

F. A. CAPP, Auctioneer

Will L. Brown

DECLARES BILL WILL NOT PASS

New Castle Attorneys Aver That

They Have Some Inside Information on Subject.

JUDICIAL CHANGE, LIVE TOPIC

Henry Docket For February is Already Overflowing With Old and New Cases.

The members of the Henry county bar association have received information from Indianapolis to the effect that the bill of Representative Billman of Shelbyville, to combine Rush and Henry counties in a judicial circuit, will fail to pass, says the New Castle Courier. Interference with present judicial arrangements is being discouraged by Governor Marshall and it is now believed that the measure will not be reported out of the committee.

However, the New Castle attorneys will not be caught napping if the measure should be taken up and an attempt made to pass it. If the judiciary committee decides to give it a hearing, a large committee will appear before the committee to protest against such an arrangement as is proposed in the Billman bill.

That the measure is not advisable and would work a great hardship on the local bench, was evidenced this morning in the circuit court, when Deputy Clerk Charles Shults put the finishing touches to the bar docket for the February term of court. The congested condition of the docket is evident by the number of cases carried over from this term to the next year.

Finding time to try all of the cases entered in the local court is a problem that Judge Jackson solves with difficulty. To combine Henry and Rush counties in a judicial circuit would make conditions all the more congested.

LOCAL NEWS

The Knights of Pythias will have work in the Third rank tonight. A full attendance is desired.

Hancock county farmers who sold milk to a Piqua, O., Creamery company will attempt to effect a settlement with the receiver.

The temperance people of Connersville are arranging to ask for an election under the new option law. In a few days petitions will be circulated for signatures.

Greensburg News: Judge Wickens Saturday sent back to Rush county the case of Arville R. Herkless vs. Rushville Milling company, damages and injunction, which was venued here some months ago.

PREDICTION COMING TRUE.

Talking of frequency of paralytic "strokes" and the many complaints of stomach trouble, a Times reporter heard something that may be of interest in connection with these maladies, says the New Castle Times.

A pioneer citizen of Knights-town recalls that some fifteen years ago the late Dr. Riddle, of that place, made a prophecy about in this wise: It was at the time when nearly all the grist mills were changing from buhr to roller process. Dr. Riddle said to the gentleman referred to: "I do not expect to live to see it, but this change in the process of making flour will result in a vast increase of paralysis and stomach trouble. The gentleman who gave this information to the Times does not recall the venerable physician's scientific reason for this prediction, but he is led to believe that it is coming true, as such diseases were rare fifty years ago."

The Dimes, Nickles and Pennies

That most-people do not count, are the ones that waste the Dollars; and it only takes a Dollar to

Open a Savings Account

3% Interest on Savings

The temptation to spend is lessened by having one of our Home Savings Banks to drop the spare small coins in; and we will make them work for you, when deposited in

The Peoples Loan and Trust Co.

RUSHVILLE, IND.

"The Home for Savings"

"The Store for Particular People."

Hargrove & Mullin ~ Drugs

Quality First

The Best of Everything

WE ARE SPECIAL AGENTS FOR

Paul E. Wirt Fountain Pen
Welsbach Gas Fixtures
Eaton Hurlbut Paper
Shumate Razors and Strops
Keller's Inks
Myer's Contentoe Cigar
American Silver Truss
Park-Davis Preparations
Raymond Remedies
Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur
Imperial Eczema Remedy
Euthymel Tooth Paste
Devilbiss Atomizers

BECAUSE THEY ARE THE BEST

We believe that a store handling specials like the above can succeed every time. We have always made an effort to add to our stock well known specials, each one the best in their line. That makes our store different from others.

When the Soup is Served prepare to be congratulated on its fine, rich favor if you have bought it from us. Few people go to the bother of making their own soups nowadays. Try a can of any of the standard brands we handle and you'll know why. Lots of other practically ready to eat good things here too. Give them a trial and cut your cooking work into less than half.

L. L. ALLEN,
GROCER. PHONE 1420

The Finest Mill That Money Could Buy.

The Choicest Grains of Wheat Obtainable. The Cream of the Flour. That is what our CLARKS PURITY FLOUR RELIES ON FOR ITS SUPERIORITY

75c AT YOUR GROCERS

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will sell at public auction, on the Churchill farm, 3 miles southwest of Rushville, on the Moscow pike, on

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1st, 1911

Beginning at 12:30 p. m., the following personal property:
One 8-year-old Mare in foal, one 10-year-old Gelding, two Jersey Milk Cows, one fresh and the other will be soon; 6 head of Feeding Steers; 10 head of Brood Sows, 15 head of Feeding Shoats; 1 pure-Bred Poland-China Boar, 300 bushels of nice white Seed Oats, all kinds of Farming Implements, all in good shape, consisting of McCormick Mower, Osborne Tedder and Rake, McCormick Daisy Reaper, McCormick Disc Harrow, Hoosier one and two-horse Disc Wheat Drills with Fertilizer Attachment, Deere Corn Planter with Fertilizer Attachment, one Studebaker Wagon, Cultivators, Harness, and other articles too numerous to mention.
TERMS OF SALE: All sums of $5.00 and under, cash; on sums over $5.00 a credit will be given until September 1st, 1911, purchaser giving good bankable note. Three per cent. discount for cash.

WALTER H. MAPLE

Fred A. Capp, Auctioneer

Noah Webb, Clerk

Purchase Advertised Articles.